CHICAGO PRODUCE TRADE.

The receipts and shipments of Flour and Grain during the past week compare with those of the week previous as follows:

Reducing the Flour to Wheat, there has been received during the week, 204,880 bushels Wheat, and 471,880 bushels of all kinds of Grain—against 326,623 bushels received the week previous, and 920,012 bushels received during the corresponding week of last year.

The total receipts and shipments of Flour and Grain since the 1st of January, compared with receipts and shipments up to the same period in 1858, are as follows:

	RECEIPTS.		SHIPMENTS.
	1859.	1858.	1859.	1858.
Flour, bbls	252,645	273,676	280,004	227,685

As the table given above shows, the movement of produce has increased considerably during the past week, and business of all kinds has assumed a more healthy tone. The Wheat market during the week has been buoyant and active—all grades having advanced 5@8c. The demand has been chiefly for spring grades,—the excellent quality of which has induced orders from all parts of the East—shipments having been made during the week to Canada, Ogdensburgh, New York, Oswego, Buffalo, and even Pittsburgh and some portions of Ohio. There has also been an active demand for Winter grades—especially No 2 Red and No 1 White—the latter of which is very scarce. At the close however, the market shows symptons of weakness induced partly by increased receipts. The closing prices of Wheat are:—No 1 Red, 92c; No 2 Red. 78@79c; No 1 Spring 79@80c; No 2 Spring, 75@77c. Flour also has been in better request, but closes dull and heavy at $3.50@3.95 for good to choice Spring Extras, and $4.25@5.50 for Winter Extras. The Corn market has been active and tolerably steady—No 1 ranging from 60@63c in store—closing yesterday at 61@62c. Oats have been in better supply, with an increased demand, closing at 26@27c for No 1 in store. Rye dull and 4c lower—closing at 52@54c. Barley quiet at 35c@40c for new crop.

There has been some movement in Mess Pork during the week. at a decline of 25@50c—closing nominal at $15.50. Bacon has advanced ½c on Shoulders, which are in good request. Dry Salted Shoulders, 6¼c. Lard quiet and entirely nominal at 10½c. Tallow steady at 10¼@10½c. Hides dull and lower—closing at 7@8c for Green Salted, and 14@15c for Dry Flint. New Timothy Seed has been in market, and several lots have been sold at $1.75@2.00—closing at $1.95. No Clover offering. Potatoes steady and firm at 50@60c. Highwines inactive and nominal at 23@23½c. Alcohol 51c—a decline of 1c. Lumber dull and prices a shade lower. Live Stock dull—Cattle, 2½@3½; Hogs, 4½@5c.

Wentworth's Platform and Candidate.

Long John comes out for Sam Houston for President. He says:

"The success of GEN. SAMUEL HOUSTON, as the Opposition candidate for Governor in Texas, places him in the front rank as a compromise candidate for the Presidency by the Opposition. He seems to be just the man for the crisis; and so we have made up our mind that with him for President, and the favorite son of Illinois (Abram Lincoln) for Vice President, we would have an excellent ticket."

The favorite son of Illinois will not feel flattered by the platform Long John would place him on, nor complimented by making him play second fiddle to the wearer of the tiger-skin jacket. Sam Houston, as will be seen by a late speech printed in this paper, endorses the Dred Scott decision, the Lecompton Constitution and Buchanan's Administration. He condemns Popular Sovereignty but goes the whole Democratic pro-slavery figure except the re-opening of the African slave trade. From this we see where Wentworth stands. He has bid good-bye to Republican principles and plunged his whole length into the pro-slavery cess pool.

Composition of the Next House.

The New York Herald exhibits the strength of the Republicans, Democrats, Anti-Lecompton Democrats, and Southern Opposition party in the next House of Representatives as follows:—

	Rep.	Dem.	Anti-L.D.	S. Opp.
Members elected	111	71	9	18
To be elected	2	18	1	6
Total	113	89	10	24

Total vote of a full House....236
Majority....119

According to this classification the Republicans would lack six votes, of a majority over all others. But the Herald puts such men as Reynolds of Albany, Clark and Haskins of New York. Adrian of New Jersey, Hickman of Pa., and Davis of Indiana, in opposition to the Republicans, when it is morally certain that at least five of them will vote and act with the Republicans from first to last. And there is no good reason for supposing that Schwartz of Pa., and Riggs of New Jersey, will vote against the Republican candidates. But least of all is it likely that any of the Southern Opposition or the Anti-Lecompton members will support the Administration candidate for Speaker or Clerk. The Herald, as usual, is trying to figure out a "crisis,"—but it will discover when the time comes that the Republicans will control the organization of the House.

Abolishing Divine Institutions.

Mr. Greeley asked Brigham Young this question: "What is the position of your Church with respect to slavery?" and received for answer: "We consider it of Divine institution, and not to be abolished until the curse pronounced on Ham shall have been removed from his descendants."

We should like to know whether, in the opinion of Saint Young, the amalgamation process going on in the South, is "removing the curse pronounced on Ham's descendants?" If it is, the curse has been considerably removed from a good many of the "descendants," and this "Divine institution" is in a fair way of shortly being abolished in the Southern States, by means of the process aforesaid.

Health of Two Cities.

The number of interments in Chicago during the month of July last, from all causes was 164.

The number of interments in St. Louis during the week ending August 20th, was 168.

The population of the two cities is nearly the same. Comment is unnecessary.

How the Wise Letter got Out.

The Albany Standard gives the following account of how the Wise letter came to be published:

Mr. Donnelly gave the letter to Mr. Cassidy, who promised to keep it from getting into the papers. Mr. Cassidy lent to Mr. Peter Cagger. Mr. Cagger read it and sent for Mr. Levien, one of the editors of the Albany Statesman and Albany reporter for the N. Y. Herald. Mr. Levien read the letter, copied it, sent it to the Herald and the Herald published it."

A Negro Arrests a White Man as a Fugitive Slave.

About 10 o'clock on Tuesday morning a gentleman by the name of Isaac Dickinson, (a carpenter) who had advanced about eight miles from this place, along the Springfield road, on his way to Carlinville, was startled by the presentation at his head of a pistol, by one Wm. Brown, a negro, living in this neighborhood. The surprised pedestrian was ordered, by his dusky assailant (who was aided by one Samuel Cobine, a white man,) to submit to having his hands tied, and be marched back to this place, his doughty captors not vouchsafing any reason therefor.

On arriving in town, the luckless traveler was informed that he was arrested as a runaway slave, for whom a reward of $200 had been offered. Fortunately, the prisoner met with residents here to whom he was not altogether a stranger, and on whose evidence he was released—no doubt to the chagrin of his captors; the negro especially, who has aforetime fingered the "filthy lucre," earned by the arrest of fugitives from the "peculiar institution," of his own color, and for aught we (or be, perhaps,) know to the contrary, of his own blood and kin.

The Late Elections.

OREGON.—The Oregonian of July 23d says that Lansing Stout (Democrat) is elected to Congress by nine majority. A correspondent of the St. Louis Democrat writes:

"The returns of Douglas County were altered, after being made out officially, so as to increase Stout's majority from 149 to 156. This was when the election was in doubt. On the California border it is capable of proof that at least one hundred Californians voted in Oregon for Stout. If this is not enough, there are proofs that the judges in one precinct in Benton County, where Stout had a large majority, were not American citizens, never having declared their intention to become such."

NEVADA—A letter from Genoa in the proposed new Territory of Nevada says: "The Committee appointed by Convention to canvass the vote for Delegate to Congress, have just reported that the whole number of votes cast is 817—for Crane, 439; for Dodge, 378—Crane's majority 61. The election will probably be contested."

KENTUCKY.—Official returns from 102 counties of Kentucky foot up for Governor:

Beriah Magoffin........75,587
Joshua F. Bell........67,626—Magoffin's maj.....7,961

For Lieutenant Governor:

Linn Boyd........74,704
Alfred Allen........63,983—Boyd's maj........10,721

The two counties to hear from will swell the Democratic majority by some 700 or 800. The aggregate vote for Governor is 143,213; in 1856 but 141,939 votes were cast for President.

MISSOURI.—In 108 counties (102 of them official) the vote for Supreme Judge of Missouri stands:

Ewing........35,550
Hall........32,760
Adams........27,078

Adair, Douglas, Hickory, Jasper and Stone counties to hear from.

The Minnesota War.

The war in Wright County, Minnesota, is at an end. The three military companies that were called out by Gov. Sibley, to arrest the lynchers of Jackson, marched back again on the promise of the people there, that the parties charged with the crime should be arrested peaceably, and the same has been done. Some thirty persons were arrested by the sheriff in the town of Rockford. On examination, several of them were discharged. and others, on a charge of manslaughter in the fourth degree, were bound over for trial in the sum of $1,000, to appear before the District Court.

The Sixth Congressional District.

The Democracy of the VIth Congressional District of this State have called a nominating Convention to meet at Springfield on the 28th of September.

The Bloomington Kidnapping Affair.

That case of attempt at kidnapping, noticed so extensively in this morning's Pantagraph, we are satisfied is for the most part a hoax. We had written nearly a column in a similar strain, founded upon reliable information obtained from head-quarters, when we learned there were two sides to the question, as there usually is in all quarrels and matters of difficulty.

So we went directly to that "responsible firm," in whose safe keeping is reposed the welfare of those colored individuals, and got what we are satisfied is the correct version of the matter. It appears that Mr. McIntosh as administrator of William Hamilton's estate came here on legitimate business to ascertain how the property was held, and whether or not it was not his duty to claim it as a part of the estate, as Mrs. Hamilton is quite poor and in need of it.

Probably the whole difficulty arose out of the fact that the deed had not been recorded as it should have been, having been neglected by the attorney whose business it was to attend to it. We have it from better authority than that from which our first information was derived, that McIntosh made no attempt to decoy off the boys or persuade them to return to the delights of slavery. It is true that he was informed that if he came to kidnap he might just as well vamose straightway, but that he would be protected in the discharge of any legitimate business. He left on the train this morning. We believe the above is a correct statement of the case, though it may be possible that Mr. McIntosh endeavored to play a double game. The colored people are considerably excited, and their exaggerated stories must be taken with many grains of allowance. So we think after hearing both sides.—Bloomington Argus.

A Texas Editor on the Texas Election.

The Houston Telegraph, which bitterly opposed Gen. Houston, takes the result of the election in a very philosophical spirit:

"We were going along smoothly, as we thought—had made our State officers for a couple of years ahead, as we fondly anticipated, and supposed the country was all right, when all at once we 'heard something drop,' and the next thing we felt 'as though we had been sent far and couldn't go.' It is of no use to try to account for the business. There is just this one thing about it; the Opposition outnumbered us, and we had to knock under. We are now pleasantly located on the banks of Salt River, that famous place for retrieving broken political fortunes. The fact is, old Sam is elected, and he can't be euchred out of his Governorship in any way but by sending him to the United States Senate."

Sale of Property at Nauvoo.

[From the Keokuk Gate City, 20th.]

The sale of the property belonging to the Icarian community at Nauvoo, which occurred on Monday last, resulted much better than they anticipated. The debts of the community amounted to $10,000, and an assignment had been made to secure the debts. On Monday morning it was supposed that all their property would be used up, and that a balance would remain against them. But before sunset their sales were sufficient to pay the debts, and it was supposed they had $10,000 worth of property left.

The Temple lot and what remains of the Temple sold for $1,350, the school house for $2,025, the distillery for $6,550.

☞ The Milwaukeeans are making preparations for a grand celebration on Saturday—fireworks, military displays, torch-light procession, etc.—on the occasion of the arrival of a couple of new steamers to ply between that city and Grand Haven in connection with the Detroit and Milwaukee Railroad.

☞ The Supreme Court of Wisconsin, Judge Cole dissenting, have decided that the act of the Legislature creating the office of State Comptroller is unconstitutional and void.

New York Items.

NEW YORK, Aug. 23.—The Fifth Avenue Hotel, the largest establishment of the kind in the country was opened to-day under the proprietorship of Paran Stevens, Esq. The house was thronged all day with visitors, who testified their admiration of the thorough and systematic arrangement of the building in all its parts. The American telegraph company have an office in the basement of the hotel, connecting it by wires with all parts of the country as well as with other prominent hotels in the city. One of the most novel features is the vertical railway for the conveyance of the guests from the ground to the upper floor.

The American Telegraph Company have obtained permission from the Secretary of War to open a marine telegraph station at Fort Layfayette in the Narrows, and will proceed immediately to lay a cable from that point to Fort Hamilton. where it will connect with the Brooklyn line which stretches to New York. This line will give the company unequalled facilities for reporting marine news night and day, as it will also connect with the line already constructed from Sandy Hook.

The First Baptist Church and the Saleratus factory of D. Kellogg, with several other buildings were burned this morning.

New York and Erie Railroad Difficulties.

NEW YORK, Aug 23.—The directors of the Erie R. R. meet to-day to report their committee, appoint and prepare a plan of organization. The razed total is large, $25,800,000. It includes all mortgages, bonds at par, the unsecured bonds at 80 per cent in stock and stock at 20 in the new stock. A subscription of about $1,000,000 is called for, for the purpose of lifting the Road from its embarrassments and the bond holders will be asked to take stock for the coupons maturing within the next twelve to twenty months. The last two propositions strike us as likely to raise determined opposition on the part of those immediately affected by them.

Death of John A. Davis—Foreign Consuls.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 23.—A private dispatch from Carlisle, Indiana, announces the death of Hon John A. Davis, of that State, and formerly Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The President has recognized C. S. Stewart as consul of Belgium to reside at Charleston, S. C.

Fire in Cairo.

ST. LOUIS, Aug. 23.—A special dispatch to the Democrat says that thirteen buildings were burned at Cairo this morning. Loss $10,000.

THE CITY.

ACCIDENTAL DROWNING.—A young lad, son of German parents residing near Bridgeport was accidentally drowned yesterday afternoon while bathing with a party of companions in the river near the upper ice house.

EXCURSION POSTPONED.—The annual excursion of the Chicago Musical Union, which was to have taken place on Thursday next, has been postponed until Tuesday next, to give time for completing arrangements and adding new features of interest to the occasion.

FOUND DROWNED.—The body of a small infant was taken from the basin at the foot of Washington street last evening. It had apparently been in the water some time. About it were the remnants of a cloth, as if had been sunk by being attached to a weight.

A COURSE OF LESSONS.—The young man, Verry, whose adventure in losing his watch and money at a saloon we chronicled yesterday, has managed a second time to pay dearly for a spree by losing the before recovered watch on Monday night. Money and watch both gone. Isn't he Verry simple?

REAL ESTATE AT AUCTION WITHOUT RESERVE.—We would recommend capitalists, business men and those dealing in real estate, to attend the sale of the real estate of the late B. C. Welch, at the Court House, this morning, at 10 o'clock. Full particulars may be found in the column of New Advertisements.

☞ Yesterday at the instance of the husband of last-named defendant, Horace Burton and Mary Jane Campbell were arrested and brought before Justice Milliken, charged with adultery. The woman, after examination was held in $300 bail. Burton waived examination and gave bail in $500.

THE PEAK FAMILY.—The Peak family concert last evening was a most pleasing success both in respect to the size of the audience and the attraction of the entertainment. They appear again this evening and we advise our readers who desire a treat to hear these famous bell-ringers.

There will also be an entertainment given this afternoon for children. Admission 10 cents.

THE PIC NIC AT EVANSTON.—The Sabbath School of the Wabash avenue M. E. Church give their annual excursion on Thursday the 25th. It will be a basket pic nic—all who intend being expected to look to their own stores. Tickets 40 cents—children half price. The cars to leave the Chicago and Milwaukee depot at 9 A. M. The good people of the Wabash avenue church have an enviable reputation for doing a good thing in the very best style, and the affair at Evanston will prove no exception.

THE FLORAL EXHIBITION AT THE NATIONAL FAIR.—The Gardener's Society of Chicago are preparing for a magnificent floral fete at the Floral Hall, on the National Fair grounds. They are causing to be erected a huge fountain in rough piled rocks, over which the waters are to flow into a basin including the whole. There is to be a fairy grotto, and there are to be in short "no end of" the wonder of Floriculture. It promises to prove one of the most attractive features of the Fair.

WEST RANDOLPH STREET.—Quite a movement is in progress among West Siders looking to securing the removal of that serious grease-spot and blemish to West Randolph street in the shape of that unsightly in-the-way structure the West Market. The experiment has answered so well in the South Division of trusting to the free market system, and so much has been gained to the noble thoroughfare State street, by the removal of the old building, that it is no wonder the disposition referred to, prevails on the West Side, which will doubtless be successful.

BURGLARY AND LARCENY OF LIQUORS.—Last winter a saloon on the corner of South Water and Clark street kept by Adam Baierle, was broken open in the night and robbed of nearly two hundred dollars worth of liquors. At the time a man named Edward Burns was suspected of having committed the act, but managed to elude detection by the officers. His former residence was searched but nothing developed against him. Within a few weeks Burns has deemed it safe to return to Chicago, and yesterday he was arrested by officers Kauffman and Douglas, and will be examined this morning upon the charge.

SCHOOL FOR ORGANISTS AND COMPOSERS.—By reference to another column it will be seen that John Zundel, the celebrated organist of Henry Ward Beecher's Church, Brooklyn, and author of sundry well-known organ books, proposes to spend the next month in Chicago, giving lessons in organ playing, musical composition, &c., provided a sufficient number of pupils desire his services. As this will be a rare opportunity for all who desire such instruction, we doubt not that numbers will eagerly avail themselves of it. As the number of pupils is limited, those who wish to join the class will do well to apply at once at Root & Cady's Music Store, where further particulars may be learned.

THE NATIONAL FAIR—MASONIC.—The following are the official notices of events before referred to, as to occur during fair week here:

The General Grand Royal Arch Chapter of the United States, presided over by Charles Gilman, of Baltimore, as General Grand High Priest, and the Grand Encampment of the United States, Sir William Blackstone Hubbard, of Columbus, Ohio, Grand Muster, meet in this city, in the Masonic Temple, on Tuesday, September 12th.

The Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Illinois, James V. Z. Blaney, Grand Commander, meets at Masonic Temple on Monday, Sept. 12th, to make arrangements for the reception and entertainment of the delegates to the General Grand Royal Arch Chapter and Grand Encampment.

THE NEW WATER FILTER.—We have frequent occasion to refer to the impurities which often render the water supplied from our Water Works hardly drinkable. We are glad to learn that the new "Draper Filter" is on sale in this city. We have before alluded to its crowning merit of being self-cleaning, a simple and exceedingly ingenious contrivance changing at will the flow of the water from one direction to the other through the filtering medium. In all other filterers the impurities are left to collect and stagnate until the filter comes to demand re-filling. In this new filterer the filter keeps itself perfectly sweet and clean, and certainly does its work admirably in freeing the water from impurities. See advertisement in another column.

RAILROAD SUITS.—Two suits against the Pittsburg, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad Company were decided at Sandusky, a few days ago. The first was brought by a laborer who had his ribs broken by the caving of an embankment, and who claimed damages for injuries received. The jury gave him nothing. The second suit was for damages sustained by an individual who was put off an emigrant train six miles from Upper Sandusky, after he had tendered his fare. He claimed that he was obliged to walk the six miles, which caused a fit of sickness. The case was tried in the Common Pleas some time ago, and a verdict of $400 rendered against the Company. The Company appealed to the District Court, but the verdict in the Common Pleas was affirmed.

ATLANTIC MONTHLY FOR SEPTEMBER.—McNally has placed on our table this king of the monthlies for September. We have had time barely to glance at its contents. The opening article is a review of the Life and works of Aug. Scheffer, in which the personal and professional career of that artist are stretched by one familiar with the subject. The second article, "A visit to Martha's Vineyard," is by Mrs. Austin. Next comes a poem of four verses, "October to May," by Florence Percy, then "The Eleusinia," by an Andover Divinity Student, who explains as much of the mysteries of Eleusis as is known to himself, or to any of the tribe of Bohemians; a chapter of "The Minister's Wooing" follows; after which, "Once and Now," a poem of two pages, by a Missouri lady The seventh paper, "A Trip to Cuba," is by Mrs. Howe, one of the Oceanic's cleverest contributers; eighth, "Zelma's Vow," a story by Grace Greenwood, continued from the July number; ninth, the best paper in the number, "The Murder of the Innocents," by Rev. T. W. Higginson, points out, with incontrovertible directness, the murderous system of instruction pursued in our schools and seminaries, especially in schools devoted to the teaching of children Number ten is a humorous story, "My Double and I," by Mr. Anonymous; eleventh, a poem of three pages, by Buchanan Read, entitled "The Singer;" twelfth, "The Professor." The Literary Notices contain a scarification of Charles Makcay's book; a favorable criticism of Dr. Palmer's Works, and carefully written notices of Napoleonic Ideas; Country Life, by R. Morris Copeland; High Life in New York, by Jonathan Slick; Great Auction Sale of Slaves at Savannah, Georgia; Popular Tales from the Norse; Farm Drainage, by Henry E. French; Cooper's Novels, and the challenge of Barletta.

About 20 pages are devoted to the review of those books, and are the ablest that have appeared in the Atlantic. And taken altogether, is one of the best numbers of this popular magazine which has yet appeared. The Atlantic may also be had at the counter of Messrs. Norris & Hyde, Newsmen, No. 100 Dearborn st.

THE YOUNG LADIES SEMINARY AT LAKE FOREST.—We are glad to notice that Chicago is becoming the seat and centre of educational enterprises of such number and character as bid fair not only to remove all necessity from our own citizens of sending their youth to a distance to acquire an education, but also to indicate the near approach of a time when throughout the Northwest no schools will take the preference of those which in this vicinity enjoy the healthful influences of our noble Lake, and from the names and position of their managers proffer a culture not elsewhere exceeded in any respect. The Young Ladies Seminary soon to go into operation at Lake Forest under the care and management of Rev. Dr. Dickinson and his accomplished daughters, is of this class, and offers rare inducements to parents who would seek, within an hour's ride of their homes, a school for their daughters where all the best influences of a Christian family will be united with judicious and refined culture and training. Lake Forest is just the place one would covet for a student life, and the Family School referred to, now soon to open will prove all that is claimed for it.

THE JUNK TRADE.—Considerable activity still prevails in the junk trade. We hear of several lots of lead pipe taken lately on terms very private, but understood to be of the class of operations before referred to in this connection. A well known plumber, John Hughes, has lost within the week $50 worth of lead pipe stolen by boys from new houses where it was being put in by the workmen. On Monday afternoon officer Davis caught some boys bearing off a bag of pipe, belonging to Mr. Hughes, which had been stolen from the house now being erected for M. D. Ogden, near Washington Park, on the North Side. Three boys were implicated, one of them employed in a dry goods store, and were brought before the Police Court yesterday morning. The leader was sent to the Reform School, and upon the other boys was imposed a fine.

We hope at no distant day to chronicle the arrest of some of the old foxes, the junk dealers, at the bottom of this business, and the set trainers of the young thieves of the town.

LONG PILGRIMAGE OF TWO LITTLE IRISH SISTERS.—Travelers and citizens who chanced to be at the Michigan Southern R. R. depot on Monday evening were much interested by the affecting incident made known concerning two little sisters, bright young girls of the respective ages of nine and twelve years, who had come out from their former home in Ireland, over sea and across the wide country from New York to join their father at Hannibal, Missouri. His name is Welsh, he had left them and their mother in the old country, to gain for them a new home here. He had sent out for his family to join him. At the eve of their departure the mother sickened and died, and the two little maids set sorrowfully out alone to encounter the perils and discomforts of an emigrant journey half round the world. Added to their possessing a more than ordinary share of sagacity, their very helplessness stood them in good stead, and strangers must have everywhere blessed and wished a prosperous transit to the brave little Alice and Mary, who we hope have a father worthy of them and the journey they have taken to join him.

A PAINFUL CIRCUMSTANCE.—An inquest was held yesterday by Coroner James on the body of a small child suddenly deceased under circumstances that induced the residents of that vicinity to send for that functionary. The death of the child was shown to have taken place as follows: The parents of the infant reside in the country fifteen miles from this city. The latter had been ill with some one of the complaints of infancy but not so seriously as to oppose an obstacle to the mother's coming to the city on a shopping excursion, with the father, on a load of produce in a common farm wagon. The infant was securely wrapped up and held to its mother's breast as she rode throughout the night upon some bags of grain in the wagon. She says the infant cried some, but she soothed it and fell asleep herself. When she awoke yesterday morning she was clasping the dead child in her arms. The grief of the poor woman was painful to witness.

☞ It is quite a common observation, that consumption is the chief curse of this climate, preying upon old and young, and scattering widely its shafts of destruction. But all who have ever traveled through the South and West, or indeed through any portion of the interior of the country, must have noticed that there is a disease far more prevalent among Americans, than consumption. Day after day, they are alternately shaking, as with a nervous fit, or rendered delirious with fever. Most of them find an early grave. No one who has ever seen or experienced this disease, can fail to perceive that we allude to what is called Fever and Ague. The discoverer of a remedy for this evil must and should be considered a public benefactor, and DR. J. HOSTETTER'S BITTERS is the remedy, we know from personal trial.

FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL,
ON FIFTH AVENUE,
At the Intersection of Broadway, opposite Madison Square,
NEW YORK.
To be Opened August 23d, 1859.

This location is the most desirable of any in this great metropolis, being the most healthy, delightful, and central in the city, and very near and convenient to the Hudson River and Boston Railroad Depots.

The entire arrangements of the establishment are the result of mature study and experience, and render it the most comfortable and home like hotel in the world.

All the improvements that comfort and convenience have suggested, have been introduced.

Every precaution has been taken, during construction, to secure the positive safety of guests from the danger of conflagration. Subdivision double brick walls extend from the rock foundation to the roof. All of the floors are double, and are separated by a layer of cement, making the entire structure fire-proof.

Among other important improvements, in addition to the usual stairways, a VERTICAL RAILWAY is nearly completed to convey guests from the first to the upper floors, upon a plan which admits of no possibility of accident.

Lofty, spacious and continuous corridors, forming a promenade of eight hundred feet upon each of the six stories, give light and air, in the highest degree, to every apartment.

A liberal space has been appropriated to public Drawing-Rooms and Parlors, connecting which and the Dining Rooms there is a grand Promenade Hall. Suites of spacious Parlors, Chambers and Dressing-Rooms, with all the modern conveniences, have been especially designed for the comfort of families, travelling parties, and single gentlemen.

An Exchange, containing the Journals of the day, and all the convenience for commercial intercourse and public business, has been added to the many other features of the Hotel, and there is a Telegraph Office connecting with all parts of the country.

Billiard and Chess Rooms of the most approved style and appointments, are provided for the use of guests and the public.

The Furniture, and every article of use in the establishment, has been expressly designed and manufactured for the FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL.

All communications for apartments, or upon any business connected with the house, please direct to "FIFTH AVENUE HOTEL," in order to insure immediate attention.

The entire organization of this Hotel has been under the direction of MR. PARAN STEVENS, proprietor of Revere and Tremont Houses in Boston, and Battle and Point Clear Houses in Mobile.

It will afford the undersigned much pleasure to see you on your next visit to our city,
With much respect,
Your obedient servants,

WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 24, 1859.

THE DEGRADATION OF LABOR.

It has long since passed into an axiom, that whatever degrades labor is diametrically opposed to the intellectual, the social and moral welfare of the people. Industry and frugality furnish the means for intellectual elevation and social enjoyment, and, therefore, whatever lessens the stimulus to exertion tends directly to destroy the best interests of society. With these principles, the facts which we presented yesterday in regard to the effects of slavery upon the industrial welfare of the Southern States fully co-incide. The degradation of labor there produces the striking contrast between the North and the South which the census so clearly reveals. A moment's reflection should convince any one, that there is the least amount of labor possible where slavery exists, and as labor is the true source of wealth and all the advantages it bestows, it follows inevitably that where labor is degraded and confined to one class of the community, wealth among the entire people cannot accumulate. All motive for exertion is by necessity taken from the slave. He knows it is impossible for him materially to better his condition by his toil. Food and clothing, such as they are, and support in old age are secured to him from his master's estate, and hence he produces the least amount possible from his childhood to his grave. The master and his family cannot, must not labor. They are above it. The father talks politics and makes speeches; the sons devote their energies to fast horses and fine hounds; and the daughters to the enervating enjoyments of the drawing-room. Habits of extravagance and waste are imperceptibly and inevitably contracted by all classes who are above the necessity of labor, and strange as it may seem, pride and ignorance drive industry and economy from the homes of the "poor white trash," who are, in fact, the most pitiable class of Southern society. Hence, were it possible to endow a country where slavery exists with the most fabulous wealth, its descent to poverty, not to speak of ignorance and vice, must be rapid and sure.

But again: that class in the community which is endowed with superior muscle and superior mind, must in the end become the ruling class. From this result there is no possible escape. It may take a few generations to develop it; but in the lifetime of nations a single principle often exerts the most commanding influence. Apply the principle above enunciated to the Southern half of the confederacy. The daily toil to which the slaves are subjected gives them the muscle, the strength for almost any amount of physical endurance. If they are obliged to do the drudgery of the country, they enjoy the health and with it the happiness that labor ever bestows upon the sons of toil. However dark the color of their skin, nature does not deny them this inestimable reward. Then as to their intellect, each generation even of pure Africans at the South becomes more cultivated than their ancestors. But he must know little of the "course of human events" there who is not well assured that there is a large infusion of the Anglo-Saxon element into each succeeding generation of slaves, and thousands of them have far more of the Saxon than the Negro in their composition. It is the proud boast of many a Virginia slave, that the "best blood of the Old Dominion" runs in his veins. It may truly be said that avarice gives the slave the strength, and lust the intellect by which in a few generations, should the South receive no accessions from the free States and from Europe, the slaves would inevitably become the masters of the fairest portions of the Union.

The absorption of the small estates by the large, the emigration of the smaller planters the merchants and the artisans of the south to the free states, and therefore the gradual lessening of the proportion between the masters and the slaves are all important elements in determining how long slavery can exist at the South.

History is full of examples, which prove beyond a question that Slavery will, in the end, destroy a nation however rich or powerful it may be. That the people of the South do not awake to their true interests and adopt some measures to avert the dangers that threaten them, is indeed passing strange.

Egypt was the cradle of the arts and the sciences—the richest and the most learned of the ancient nations. But the men, whose hands built the pyramids were slaves, and Egypt has for thousands of years been the meanest and the basest of kingdoms. What scholar has not a lively recollection of the servile wars of the Greeks? And where in the history of the world was there ever a more intellectual or a more powerful people than the Romans? The Cæsars conquered all the surrounding nations, and their generals, subalterns and common soldiers, each demanded his quota of slaves. Precisely the same causes that are now enervating the South gave the proud mistress of the world to be the spoil of the ruthless Goth and the remorseless Vandal. The Turks were for generations the slaves of a Tartar tribe to the north-east of the Caspian sea. Becoming in the end, as all slaves must, more powerful than their masters, they rose up and overwhelmed their oppressors in one common ruin, and at length conscious of their strength, we see them sweeping down around the south end of the Caspian and from the twelfth century onward for several generations, they made themselves the terror of Europe. Their indomitable energy made them masters of some the fairest portions of Europe and Asia. As a race they too became indolent and proud. The labor of the field and the workshop was committed to slaves, and now Turkey is really the weakest of the nations of Europe. She exists by sufferance, and ere long the Czar and his associate despots will administer upon the "sick man's" heritage. The servile rebellion of Hayti is fresh in the history of the world. The black man is there giving practical illustration, defective as yet, it is true, of his capacity for self-government.

With the facts of our own census, with the lessons of history and the clearest deductions of reason before him, can any man believe that slavery will work out more propitious results upon the Gulf of Mexico than it did upon the shores of the Caspian, the Black and the Mediterranean seas? Can this age of the world set at defiance those principles which have governed the affairs of men from the building of the pyramids to the opening of the last Southern Convention? Will the people of the Southern States coin the sweat of the bondman into golden eagles, till their own hands become palsied and they can grasp them no more?

But while holding these views and firmly believing with Jefferson and the Fathers of the Republic that "all men are created equal," the Republican party has not the least desire to meddle with slavery where it exists. How long it is to be endured and how it is to be removed are questions for the South alone to decide. The North we presume would gladly co-operate with the South in procuring a home for the emancipated negroes in Central America, but with slavery itself where it is we have nothing whatever to do. The Republican party is irrevocably pledged to resist the extension of slavery, and on this platform we believe thousands of patriotic men at the South will unite with us. Ten years will make the Republican party the only true National party, embracing within it the intelligence and the conservative strength of every portion of the Union.

☞ James C. Pratt, in a communication to the St. Paul Times, says: "I was at Yellow Medicine during the recent payment of the Upper Sioux. About one hundred of the red men were sheared, and dressed in the apparel of white men, Previous to the operation, Superintendent Cullen addressed them through an interpreter, and stated that he wished to have them vote at the next election, and vote the Democratic ticket!"

GEN. HOUSTON AGAIN.

We print in another column so much of Gen. Sam Houston's speech at Nacogdoches, Texas, as relates to national politics, which we presume sets forth the general issues on which he achieved his late signal victory. On matters connected with State policy Gen. Houston gave the "regulars" some telling blows, which, no doubt, contributed so largely to his success, but these points would have little interest for readers in the Northwest. The movement started in certain quarters, and zealously seconded by John Wentworth, to bring "San Jacinto" out as a candidate for President, will lend a special interest to his views of parties and politics.

It will be seen that Gen Houston endorses the Dred Scott decision, the Lecompton Constitution, and the Buchanan Administration, all up to the hilt. He opposes the African Slave Trade, but only on grounds of expediency. He condemns Popular Sovereignty as a cheat and a delusion to the South. In a word, he occupies the pro-slavery platform in its length and breadth, and stands before the country as a proper candidate for the Charleston Convention. But for the fact that his general honesty and firmness unfit him for such prominence in the Democratic party, we should pronounce him the man of all others the most likely to receive their nomination for the Presidency. An impression that he is not as pro-slavery as his speeches declare him to be, will probably prevent his having any considerable strength at Charleston. The old General has been in bad odor with the Democracy ever since he opposed the Nebraska bill, and though he now places his opposition to it upon the ground that it was an injury to the South, it is not likely the explanation will be accepted by those who have Southern interests in their keeping.

CENSUS REVELATIONS IN SOUTH CAROLINA.

A census is now being taken in South Carolina which will bring to light some curious and suggestive facts as to the relative increase of the white and black races. It is stated that in seventeen parishes in which the enumeration has been made, there is a decrease of the white population of over 5,000 since the census of 1855, while the blacks during the same period have largely increased in number. Should corresponding results follow in the rest of the State, there can be no denying the fact that it is in a fair way of being Africanized. The opening of the Slave Trade would only precipitate a result inevitable anyhow.

The Sabbath Question—A Call for more Discussion.

Editors Press and Tribune:

Some of your readers will be surprised that W. holds his strong arguments against the Sabbath in reserve for want of an opponent worthy of him. We simply thought he had forgotten the main topic and was indulging in a little matter of personal bitterness after which he would deign to approach the question. We know not how the affirmative of this question has been managed except that some very sensible articles have appeared on that side going briefly and easily over a course of argument to which little or no allusion has been made in reply. Who have felt themselves at liberty to write, I know not. There has been an impression on several good writers' minds that the PRESS AND TRIBUNE was not open to a full discussion of the subject.* Those whose articles have appeared have had no concert with each other, and very little reference to writers on the other side. The subject has nevertheless occupied time and space enough for an able discussion if two representative men had begun right. Would it not be well even now to give condensation and directness to the discussion by some distinct proposal between chosen parties?

Unless this is done, one after another of the friends of the Sabbath will state and restate the argument for it. W. who either cannot or will not understand it, will soon give us his whole system of theology and morals and claim a victory and then retire. This is all well enough unless the false impression should be created that he had answered anybody or anybody had attempted to answer him. No one is anxious to offer himself as an opponent to such a rambling debater as he would probably prove to be—no one could wish to adopt his style of debate. But if the Anti-Sabbath cause can have no better advocate he could find some one who would consent to ask him a few questions and point out some of his misstatements. No one will do it without asking or being in some way authorized to deal with a man of his temper and sentiments. He has assumed in his closing paragraph the championship of one side. It is a matter of some delicacy for any one to assume that he is the "other side," whom W. waits to hear. You might tender your columns to some man who would do W. and the subject ample justice. Or you might allow W. to choose a man to alternate with him under such restrictions as would ensure brevity and thoroughness. This course would be much more satisfactory than to publish column after column of unanswered argument, and an equal or greater amount of appeal to stale prejudices. Many of your readers attach great importance to this subject and are not satisfied with the present method of treating it. Unsatisfactory as the discussion is, it has revealed a scheme to change not merely our Sabbaths but all our religious institutions. The one great benefit which has thus far resulted is to show what kind of arguments and what kind of men are relied upon to destroy the sacredness of our Sabbath. It is one of the worm-eaten, hollow dead stumps which are to be grubbed up out of the way of infidel progress. Anti-Sabbath movement is to be linked to reforms as one of the latest born of them all. Many sad hearts contemplate such a suggestive article as W.'s last.

CITIZEN.

*In which they were entirely mistaken, and yourself too so far as you shared the impression. If the Sabbath party have suffered in the discussion thus far, (we express no opinion on that point) the fault is chargable to themselves alone. If, as "Citizen" seems to think, the strongest pens have not yet been employed on that side, the neglect is chargable to their indolence. To complain that this or that Anti-Sabbatarian writer does not evince the calibre suitable for the best dialecticians on the other side is not sufficient. They may as well acknowledge themselves defeated in open battle as allow victory to be taken by default. Some people are being influenced by these discussions,—whether few or many, it is not for us to say. They are numerous enough at least to be worth looking after by the best men on either side.—[EDS. A Catholic Swindle.

There is a very pretty quarrel just now between Monseigneur Pinsnarlt, Roman Catholic Bishop of Sandwich, C. W., and his flock. He is accused of hatred to the Irish who form the great mass of his congregation, of having used deception to induce the Pope to change the seat of the diocese from London to Sandwich, and of having swindled the church and appropriated money belonging to it. To these charges the Bishop replies: With regard to the pecuniary accusation, he shows that the diocese is in debt to him £3,318, a deficit accumulated in three years. He denounces his flock for refusing to pay the forced contribution levied at the doors of the church, and threatens to excommunicate the offenders.

Gen. Ward B. Burnet and his Sins.

It was announced by telegraph some time since that serious charges had been preferred against Gen. Ward B. Burnett, Surveyor-General of Kansas and Nebraska. It turns out that the offence laid at the door of that functionary was drunkenness! Gen. Burnett's predecessor—John Calhoun, of the order of the candle box, was never noted as an over-zealous temperance man, either in this State or in Kansas. Hence some surprise was manifested in Nebraska to learn why drunkenness had been catalogued as a crime by the powers that be. The petition addressed to the President and Secretary of the Interior, sets forth that Gen. Burnett's habits have become so notorious that "the opposition are using it greatly to the injury of the Democratic party." But the Nebraska Press puts forth an entirely different ground of complaint against the immoral surveyor. It is as follows:

> It is generally understood that Gen. Burnett has given great offense in not permitting Federal officers and employees to indulge, without restraint, their passion for liquor, while enjoying his hospitality. We have been told that when they were at his house, he even went so far as to hide the whisky bottle—(a most flagrant offense.) This, added to the well known fact that he has never been known to present himself before the public in what might be called a drunken condition, is certainly evidence sufficient to warrant the suspicion that he (Burnett) was unfaithful in the discharge of duty, and for this dereliction should, and no doubt will, receive the censure of the President.

Governor Chase on the Stump.

Governor Chase addressed a large meeting of Republicans at Marysville, Union County, O., on the 16th inst. Governor Chase said he would not have the slavery question shut out every other interest of the country, yet he knew perfectly well that it had assumed great and important proportions. * * *

> "I am for intervention with wrong wherever the constitution of my country permits it. I will maintain free labor and will never seek to shield myself by any party dodge. We leave the Southern States to do what they will with their institutions at home, and we propose to do the same. We dislike their slavery, though we do not propose to interfere with them—but in all our broad territories, over which the western sun is now shining so benignantly, in the name of our country and our God, let us see to it that there liberty is to be maintained."

—The Richmond News, a new daily paper, has hoisted the name of John M. Botts for President. This is the second journal which has been attacked with the distemper—the Baltimore Clipper being the first.

Crop of 1859--Grain Inspection, &c.

Country Produce Dealers and Chicago Inspection.

LACON, Aug. 22, 1859.

Editors Press and Tribune:

During the past two weeks business has led me to visit a considerable portion of the country bordering on the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, Rock Island, and Illinois Central railroads, and in doing so, I necessarily was more or less conversant with the Produce Dealers at the different stations along said roads.

I find that most of them, during the high pressure prices of May and June, indulged rather freely, and to their cost, in Stumptail and Standard; and even No. 1 did not always take care of Number One, but left a sad deficiency in the right hand side of the Ledger, in Wheat ac't. A great many of them, too, got sadly Corn-ed by 'rejected' returns, which possibly accounts for their very elevated ideas of the value of the cereals they dealt in.

But on the principle of finding their money where they lost it (as the old adage goes;) most of them have 'pitched in' and are purchasing what they can of the new crop as it comes forward, in the hope of retrieving the adverse fortune of the fore part of the season. But fortune, like the course of true love, never runs smooth; so it seems to be with our friends the produce dealers. Relying on the general good quality of the new crop of wheat, many of them did not discriminate sufficiently between that that was perfectly clear of oats or dirt, and that that was not. The consequence is that No. 2 figures in a great many of their account sales, and from $10 to $20 loss, instead of profit is figured for each car load sent.

This causes complaints and curses (I take that back, produce dealers are all moral men, and never swear,) against the Chicago Inspection. Every dealer has his particular grievance or good luck to relate. One dealer says that his commission merchant has got eyes that the inspector sees through, when he goes to inspect grain that is consigned to him, and that all he has to do is to advise his commission merchant what grade his wheat is and it is always inspected that grade. Another says that he sent a lot of just as good wheat as could be produced, and well cleaned, and that it was graded No. 2, and he loses ten cents per bushel on account of the want of judgment in the Chicago inspector. The third dealer will tell that out of a bin in his warehouse, three car loads of Spring wheat was shipped, all precisely the same quality. One car load was graded No. 1 Spring (which it was in fact) another inspected No. 2 Spring, and the other No. 1 Red Winter. This dealer most confidently asserts that the whole inspection system is a grand humbug. The fourth and last I shall mention, after telling of a number of car loads that he had been victimized on, said that the other day, in order to clean out his warehouse, he loaded a car with the veriest Stumptail, and was agreeably surprised when his account of sales came to hand to find it had been graded No. 1 Spring.

The length of this communication prevents me from making any comments at this time, but will only say, that the above facts prove that the true system for inspecting grain has not yet been reached. If others more competent do not do it, I may at some future time have some suggestions to offer in relation to the matter.

RAMBLER.

CROP IN BUREAU COUNTY.

Editors Press and Tribune:

Just received your weekly yesterday. Glad at last to see a letter from "Rural" giving views of the wheat crop concurring with my own. Statements published heretofore so far as they have come under my observation, convey the idea that the crop in general is large beyond all precedent. The chinch bug damaged the crop very materially in this vicinity, some pieces so much that they were not harvested; many more are so shrivelled as to be of little value. Most farmers in this vicinity have learned to plow land for wheat in the fall—where this was done and wheat sown early, the yield is fair only, say fifteen bushels per acre. The quality of the berry has never been excelled and rarely equalled in the eighteen years I have been familiar with Illinois wheat.

If the price of wheat does not materially advance before another harvest, I'll be cautious about guessing aloud next time.

More than the usual amount of land has been planted to corn this season, but it has had untimely frosts, chintz bug, and drouth, to contend with. I should put the amount at about an ordinary good crop, if we escape early frosts, as we must for it to mature; only rarely do you find an ear large enough for table use in the fields of this neighborhood. Barley and oats, good, but moderate amount sown of Oats. Potatoes are very small and gardens not promising, on account of drouth. Apples, very few and small. Grass, particular timothy and other tame grasses, good.

STORING GRAIN FOR HIGHER PRICES—INSPECTION, ETC.

DECATUR, August 18, 1859.

Editors Press and Tribune:

Of money there is next to none in this part of the State, but a fair wheat crop. Corn—there is a third more planted than ever before, and with the late rains there is every prospect of a very large yield indeed. Farmers bring in wheat all through the centre part of the State to store, waiting for better prices—they will not sell until late in the fall. The bulk of the crop, almost invariably one-eighth to one-fourth, is cheat and oats—which warehouse men are trying to clean as well as possible for market, and they say the inspectors keep the grade so high that it is an impossibility to get their wheat into anything but No. 2, so they resort to the only alternative, mixing the poorest with the best and marking all No. 2.

I do not think there is an average of over seven bushels of wheat to the acre south of the Military Tract. I have examined wheat from the thresher and generally in every county I have been through, grain dealers and bankers think this is a high average. Farmers will generally clear up most of their indebtednes with crops of '59—there is no escape for them when executions follow them to town and receive the money paid for grain. People are getting sharp down this way when they dare not travel any more for fear of getting into traps set for them by creditors.

Yours in haste, E. F. G.

CROPS IN KNOX COUNTY.

GALESBURG, Knox Co., Ills., August 18th, 1859.

Editors Press and Tribune:

GENT'N:—The wheat harvest in our region (including four of the best counties in this State, tributary to this market), is now stacked and being threshed. The yield of the crop disappoints every one; some turning out only five busbels to the acre, and some less, while better crops produce from seven to ten, and the best produce ten to fifteen bushels per acre. It is thought by many that the crop will not yield over half an average quantity—at least, the expectations of all will be disappointed, and the sum total will fall far below the calculations in the earlier part of the season. The quality of the wheat is prime; the berry being clean and plump. Some of the counties south of us have not yielded as well as our section, one large wheat county not yielding more than will be required for home use.

The estimate upon the wheat harvest of Illinois will probably fall short largely. The corn is looking well, though late corn needs rain badly.

The African Slave Trade.

The Mississippian says that the agitation in favor of the repeal of the slave-trade law, is confined to no political party nor class of our citizens, but is fast becoming the popular sentiment of the Southern people. "The sooner," it adds, "our Northern fellow citizens are convinced of the fact, and make up their minds to accede to our just demand, the better for the peace and prosperity of our political union."

When Etheridge introduced his resolution in Congress, in 1855, opposing the projected opening of the African slave trade, only seven Democrats voted against it. Last winter Zollicoffer renewed Etheridge's resolution and nearly forty Democratic votes were cast against it. Next winter when Etheridge renews his resolution more than fifty—perhaps sixty—Democratic members will vote against it. This shows the alarmingly rapid advance the project has made among the Democrats for opening the African slave trade.

The Mississippi paper does not exaggerate when it says that the repeal of the slave trade prohibition is becoming the popular sentiment of the Southern people. How do the doughfaces of the West relish this spread of the new Democratic test act?

Washington Items.

[Special Dispatch to the New York Herald.]

WASHINGTON, August 19, 1859.

Minister McLane is looked for here early in September, with a treaty between the Juarez government and the United States which will cover all disputed points. The best understanding prevails between the two governments. Senor Mata is perfectly satisfied the President is determined to extend every aid in his power to the liberal government of Mexico.

Ex minister Forsyth arrived at the National this morning, accompanied by Judge Meek and other Alabama Douglas men. They dine with Judge Douglas to-morrow. These politicians are somewhat troubled to reconcile their support of Douglas' territorial sovereignty views with their former opposition of Cass' Nicholson letter. While claiming independent sovereignty for the Territories, they fail to explain why governors and other officers are not elected by the people, instead of being appointed by the federal government.

Accounts from Georgia indicate the probable loss of a Democratic member of Congress in Seward's district, and perhaps a gain of one in Trippe's.

The first choice of the Georgia delegation at Charleston, it is said, will be for Alexander H. Stephens.

Governor Medary gives most cheering accounts from the Kansas gold region. He fully believes in the existence of rich quartz veins and says crushing machines are being sent out in great numbers. The effects of emigration are very beneficial to Kansas Territory in sales of produce. The crops this year are very abundant, and the prospects for a good demand from the mines flattering.

There is a sharp contest in Indiana for the Democratic nomination for Governor between Commissioner Hendricks, (Senator Bright) and Cyrus L. Dunham (Douglas.) Mr. Hendricks is at present absent on a visit to that State.

Colonel Florence, of Philadelphia, will get out the first number of his Democratic Review about the middle of September.

THE TEXAS ELECTION.

Sam Houston's Views of Democracy, The African Slave Trade, Mr. Buchanan, Lecompton, Dred Scott, etc.

We make the following extracts from a lengthy speech delivered by Gen. Houston at Nacogdoches, Texas, on the 9th inst:

My position before the people has been the subject of so much criticism and misrepresentation, that justice alike to myself and you, demands that I shall give a full, free and fair exposition of the views which I bear with me through this canvass, and upon which you are called to judge me. I am aware that there is a great diversity of opinion as to the bearing of my acts upon the welfare of the country. My career is not disconnected with history, and through its future pages may vindicate me, I desire to feel that in the eyes of the present generation I am regarded as an honest man, and one who will not yield his country's good to promote his own ambition. * * * * *

HE IS A DEMOCRAT.

I am a democrat of the old school. In politics I am an old fogy. An old fogy, because I cling devotedly to those primitive principles upon which our government was founded, and under which the constitution went into operation. I have no modern improvements to make on the principles of our fathers. From the principles they enunciated can be deduced all that will make our country prosperous and glorious, and its people happy. You may change parties, build up and pull down platforms, but the principles of democracy will remain intact until liberty shall have expired and nothing remain but anarchy and despotism.

WHO NOMINATED HOUSTON.

Though I had determined to, forever, abandon public life, and had so expressed myself, my conscience has not permitted me to stand aloof from my fellow citizens in this emergency. I did not desire office; but the people have asked me to come forth and serve them. I have been with Texas in six troubles and in seven I will not desert her. It was the honest yeomanry of the country, men inured to toil, men from the plough, the planting interest of the country who sustain and support it, not the kid-gloved politicians, who called me forth. Their letters came to me from all portions of the State, urging me to once more face calumny and abuse for their sake. Their cramped signatures told that their hands were hard; but their honest words were those of freemen who would not submit to dictation. At their call I have quit my flocks and herds, and am ready again to throw all my energies into the scale of the common weal. Until a common sympathy with my fellow citizens would no longer let me refuse, I was opposed to allowing my name to go before the people as a candidate. Having done so, I intend to allow their intelligence to be their guide, shall do no canvassing, and make no speeches, unless it be on an occasion like this when business or accident brings me in their vicinity. Notwithstanding my desire to retire, and that this candidacy has not been of my own seeking, but in a spontaneous wish of my fellow citizens, the organs of the Houston Convention party have opened upon me their batteries of vituperation. It is the people, not me, whom they should assail; but as they assail the people through me, I am ready to repel it. Most prominent among these is the organ at Austin. What reason it can have for assailing me I cannot tell, unless it knows the spoils depend upon my being beaten. If the statements of Gov. Pease and other respectable gentlemen be true, it can afford to use its types to maintain its party ascendancy, for it has obtained thousands of dollars from the Treasury in defiance of the law. Its editor is not to blame for making his types help to preserve the system by which he gets fed at the public crib, nor am I to blame for using my tongue to repel his slanders, so long as I do not say anything unkind of him.

THE AFRICAN SLAVE TRADE.

But was the Runnells' Convention a party organization. It was; but of what kind of a party? It was a convention, but as conventions are an offshoot from Democracy, we have a right to inquire whether they are good scions of the parent stock. I don't know how good Know Nothings who composed a majority of that Convention regarded it; but I know it was anything but a Democratic Convention. They made a platform which declares resistance to slavery agitation, and they then agitated it in its worst form by discussing the re-opening of the African slave trade. Though that question was laid upon the table from motives of policy, the sentiments of the convention were too plainly developed for any to be deceived as to its character. Resolutions providing for the agitation of the subject were introduced, and the uncontradicted declaration made that they contained the sentiments of the Convention, and it has since been declared that nineteen-twentieths of the delegates were in favor of them. What will be the result of this? Re-open the African slave trade and the South will be deluged with barbarians. Your present stock of negroes would fall in value, and recede in point of intelligence. Not a poor man would be able to stay in the country, because labor would be so cheap that he would not be able to get bread for himself and his family. The labor market would be overdone. The vast army of slaves would be put to work in your cotton fields, and the vast crop would glut the market beyond all reasonable demand. Prices would fall to four or five cents per pound, and even then, when the demand was supplied, the greater portion of your crop would lie upon your hands for want of a purchaser. Freights would advance to an enormous price, because every sail that the Yankees could raise—these dear abolitionist gentlemen who love the negro so well—would be engaged in the traffic. Each vessel that could be bought or pressed into the service would be upon the coast of Africa. It would be more profitable than the carrying trade. Your cotton would lie and rot on your wharves or in your gin houses, because transportation will not pay, and ruin to your financial interests will be the consequence. If negroes should be cheaper, money would be dearer. It is easier now to buy a negro at $1,600 than it was twenty years ago at $500. Increase the production of cotton at once tenfold, as it would be, and the demand falls off in proportion. The Yankees would then get your cotton at four cents per pound, and make it into calico and red handkerchiefs to buy negroes with on the coast of Africa, which they will bring South to sell for your hard dollars. To such a ruinous policy I am opposed. I do not go to the results that will accrue to the African. I will not discuss its morality. That is a question with which I have nothing to do. Its practical effects upon us and our posterity, are what we are first to look at. It may be that the African will be benefitted, but it will be death to the whites. These men would bait the South on to a dissolution of the Union. Since 1832 the struggle for dissolution has been going on. That is what this means. The moment you ask the North to concede to your demands with reference to the re-opening of the slave trade, it will be the signal for bitterness and strife. We can't live in fellowship. We must have a dissolution, and then follows civil war. You may take these men in their protean shapes, nullificationists, secessionists, African slave trade men, but they all mean disunion. I love my country—my whole country. I would preserve it for posterity as free and as pure as it came to us, and therefore oppose everything calculated to destroy it.

THE KANSAS-NEBRASKA VOTE.

Two years ago you gave me a little the worst skinning that mortal man ever got. It was a regular drubbing. I had voted against the Nebraska bill and had voted against Mr. Buchanan. Well, that is past. The Nebraska bill has had its day and the results are to be seen. What they are I will not say, but I will say that ex-Governor Hammond, one of the most profound statesmen in the South, and one whom your Legislature has fully endorsed, has declared "The Kansas Nebrrska bill was a delusion and deception from the beginning." It was a snare to those at the South. It was rotten with fraud, and those who made it flinched from its consequences." Other members of Congress and statesmen have declared that the South was deceived in the bill. I was the only extreme Southern Senator who voted against it, and for that you whipped me like a cur dog. If I was wrong I own it, and take it all back; and if you were wrong I forgive you.

HIS PRINCIPLES.

My principles you all know. I have ever been opposed to banks; opposed to internal improvements by the general government; opposed to a distribution of the public lands among the States; opposed to taking the power from the hands of the people; opposed to special monopolies; opposed to a protective tariff; opposed to a latitudinous construction of the constitution; opposed to slavery agitation and disunion. This is my Democracy. Point to a single act of my public career not in keeping with these principles. Will those who are so bitterly opposing me now come up and compare notes?

THE ADMINISTRATION.

Well, Mr. Buchanan became President. He is an honest man. He is a patriot. He took the reins of government under trying circumstances. Mr. Pierce had thrown himself into the hands of free soilers and disunionists. Men of ultra creeds were to be found in the high places of government. He built them up in his messages. He produced the Utah difficulty, by giving such scoundrels as Brigham Young and others, whom he sent there, control of affairs. Our relations with Great Britain were unsettled. A system of fraud in the performance of government frauds had grown up. These were all entailed upon Mr. Buchanan, and he had to meet them. He has been honest and faithful, and if all the evils have not been remedied, it has not been from a want of effort on his part. You did well to make him President, and when all the clouds which have gathered about his administration are cleared up, you will find that, surrounded as he has been by factions which have crippled his administration, and by difficulties which were not of his own making, he had acted wisely and as a patriot.

LECOMPTON—DRED SCOTT.

When the question of the admission of Kansas under the Lecompton Constitution came up, I cheerfully voted for the best measure presented—that which met the general support of the South, and the approval of the President. I had no objection to make to the measure, because I regarded the resolutions of the Legislature as my instructions, and besides, I ardently desired that the unprofitable and dangerous Kansas agitation should be brought to a close. Any measure which did justice to the South and bid fair to attain this end, had claims upon my support. The Supreme Court having decided in the Dred Scott case upon the unconstitutionality of the Missouri restrictions, it only remained to apply to Kansas the doctrine of non-intervention. While I have maintained the compromises of the Constitution, I have ever contended, in the application of a doctrine to territory acquired since, that "the only question which should be asked of a State when she knocks at our doors for admission, should be: Does her Constitution conform to the national requirement? Is it republican in its character?" The support I gave to the compromise measures of 1850 proves my devotion to this doctrine. In the decision of the Supreme Court I acquiesce, because I regard it as a co-ordinate branch of the Government, upon whose decision we may rely with safety. Without an examination into the details of its action, I take it for granted that it is right. Regarding it as the only authorized power under the Constitution to adjudicate such questions, the moment its decision is proclaimed it becomes a legal finality. Upon the question of the constitutionality of the Missouri Compromise I had never declared a favorable opinion. Now, that it is declared to be unconstitutional by the supreme legal authority of the land, I acquiesce in it, and have done so from the first.

The Texas Fever among the Cattle in the Southwest.

FORT SCOTT, K. T., August 12th, 1859.

Correspondence of the Missouri Democrat.

This part of Kansas is improving very rapidly and filling up with industrious and enterprising settlers. The corn and other crops promise finely, but the great drawback we have, is what we call the Spanish Fever among our cattle caused by driving the Texas cattle, through. There have been about 15,000 head driven up the military road, from Fort Gibson by the way of Fort Scott on to Kansas City and Fort Leavenworth during the past spring and summer. The last drove came through about the 2d of June. This desease follows wherever these cattle go, and is seen nowhere else. It has ruined hundreds of men here. Some poor men have lost quite half their teams and all they have for support of their families. Many are left without any means to cultivate their lands. We can't keep as much as a milch cow on this road.

The only remedy for this is to stop the driving of these Texas cattle through here after about the 10th of May. This we ask of the drovers, and this they must grant us. We have suffered too much this year to have the thing repeated another year.

This disease made its appearance among our cattle this year about the 10th of July. One of the first symptons is a dull look out of their eyes. They all hold their heads down, refuse to eat, draw their breath quick and hard, and as the fever increases lie down frequently, and stagger as they walk. When they walk, then appear to lose the use of their hind parts. They usually live from three to six days, some as long as eight days. On post mortem examination, we find the manifolds of the stomach perfectly hard and dry, without any appearance of moisture about them. We have tried most every remedy, without much benefit. The most successful one is to give ½ oz. of salomel, and work it off with a pint of oil. I saved a cow with this, but it must be given as soon as you see any symptons of the disease.

Scenes After the War—The Wounded in Italy.

The Newark Advertiser of August 19th gives the following interesting details from a private letter, dated Brescia, July 25:

* * * "I am most happy in being able to reassure Madame B. Her noble son is convalescing; cheerful, and as well cared for in the family of the Marquis, as he could be in her own palace. It is certainly proper that she should know the whole truth. Though not dangerously hurt, he was hit seven times, but yielded only towards the close of the day, when he fell with a tearing shot in the thigh. Two of his men dropped with fatal wounds while attempting to take him off, whereupon he crawled to the rear, and was taken care of by the surgeons. His horse was killed early in the action. He loses the left hand thumb, and the lobes of one ear. The ball in the thigh did serious mischief, but it will be repaired. The other four wounds were superficial. His actual suffering is comparatively light.

Thousands of these mutilated wretches are deformed for life. Fancy the hideous spectacle. More than 2,000 limbs have been amputated. Many have lost both legs; and there is one poor trunk, a fine-spirited young Frenchman, who has been deprived of all four limbs, that is, both feet, one arm entire, and the hand of the other. And yet, alas! he lives; not, certainly as one of our English wits once said to the mourners over a fatal case of like mutulation, to be an ornament to society!

The hospital reports yesterday reduce the sick and wounded remaining, to about 8,000, chiefly French and Piedmontese. The mortality among the Austrians is surprising; only about 500 remain; they are well provided for in the Cathedral, one of the 40 improvised hospitals, attended by their own surgeons, who were among the prisoners. The extreme heat under which all nature is languishing aggravates the suffering; but this humane people bring all their resources to mitigate it. All the ladies appear to have become Sisters of Charity; with the heavenly spirit of Florence Nightingale, though without her reward. The greatful miserables call the dear creatures angels; who have indeed, done better for them than all the priests and doctors in the service, though numbered by the hundred. One told me the other day that she had written 123 letters for the dying, with tender messages to dear ones at home.

There are about fifty deaths daily. General Arvaldi and the Duke d'Abrantes have both succumbed at last. There must be something near a hundred thousand of these infirm and maimed relics of the war still lingering in the country, for nearly every town from Milan to the Mincio is a hospital. What a history is that of Lombardy! And this is one of the bloodiest chapters of it. A richer province never invited the cultivation of man, and yet it has been the battle-field of ambition for countless ages. They kill the elephant for his tooth; so these rich plains seemed doomed to suffer through their very charms.

Garibaldi was here on a brief errand the other day. He feels deeply the chagrin which the terms of peace produced in every breast. Troops and people seemed struck with a moral paralysis and they are not likely to recover through the doctrine of diplomacy. The army could much better have borne a defeat in the field. Those that remain here lounge round the streets, like tired laborers after a fruitless harvest, spiritless and spiteful."

Californians Killed by Indians on the Plains.

[From the San Francisco Bulletin.]

George Davis, of New York, who has just arrived in this city overland, via the South Pass, informs us that on June 17th, while passing up the Sweetwater river, near South Pass, his party discovered a man named C. H. Hall, lying in the road mortally wounded. They took him up and carried him on with them till June 19th, when he died. From the wounded man Mr. Davis obtained the following narrative, which he has kindly furnished us:

On April 30th, Mr. C. H. Hall, of Cincinnati, Ohio, George Stephenson, of Pittsburg, Pennsylvania, and David Moore, of Lancaster county, Penn., and Capt. Henry Florence, of Carlisle, Pennsylvania, left Sacramento with the intention of going to the East overland. After reaching the Sweetwater river on the 15th, Moore fell sick and the party halted in a canon on the banks of the river, about fifty miles from South Pass. On the third day of their halt, they were surprised by a party of Crow Indians.

They were all sleeping, when the Indians stole in upon their camp, and seizing the guns fired upon the sleepers, killing Stephenson and Moore, and fatally wounding Hall, who was shot through the shoulder and hip. Capt. Florence sprang upon an Indian who carried a club. At this point of the affair, Hall fainted. When he returned to consciousness again, he found that the tent was rifled of its contents and himself stripped of all of his clothing. Upon turning his eyes aside, he saw Capt. Florence standing bound hand and foot about ten yards distant, and the Indians holding a council in their own language a few yards further off. In a short time they led Capt. Florence away, and soon afterwards Hall heard the tramping of horses.

The Indians had gone off with their prisoner, leaving Hall, whom they supposed to be dead, without clothing or food. Although mortally injured, he managed in the course of a couple of days to walk half a mile and reached the main road, where he fell and remained two days, when Mr. Davis and his party passed and picked him up.

The party spent some time seeking for the Indians and Captain Florence, but without avail. All that could be found was a trail leading in the direction of the Crow nation. Capt. Florence belonged to the Masonic fraternity.

An Austrian Opinion of the Great Powers.

"England presents the sad spectacle of a government which has lost all its supports and which floats at hazard between unchained passions, the interest of cotton spinners, and the disquietude of statesmen. To dissimulate its weakness this conservative State propagates revolutionary principles, is afraid of war, and cries out when peace is concluded. Russia is retired in the extreme, within her fortress of ice and snow. She makes nets with a good deal of art, and it is not yet known who or what she desires to catch in them. As to Prussia, every one has had an opportunity of forming a judgment respecting her. Germany, which wanted to march to the help of Austria, has preserved her position and dignity. She has given a striking contradiction to the partisans of the policy of Gotha, and has proved to the world that she has lost none of her vigor, but she has been paralyzed by the policy of her most powerful member, who was too irresolute to decide anything. France has at this moment a government which in vigor contrasts with all others. The Prince who is at her head governs himself, but he does so like a man, and with all the authority of high capacity. Europe admits that recent events have given that government new elements of force and solidity. The Emperor of the French is of great intelligence and a profound statesman; that must be admitted by those who oppose and those who share his views. He displays neither hesitation nor uncertainty, because he knows what he wants, and consequently knows how to act at the right moment. The opposition of interests between Austria and France will, no doubt, cease in consequence of the regulation of the Italian question, and there is reason to believe that Austria can remain on the best terms with France. The engagements which Austria has taken she must punctually fulfil; she must, in particular, observe those which treaties impose on her towards her neighbors, but she must also and before all things, think of herself."

Death of a Republican Leader in Europe.

The great leader of Belgian Independence, and the prime promoter of its severance from Holland in 1830, has just died at Brussels,—D. G. De Potter. In 1829, Dec. 12, he stood before the Tribunal of Brabant, arraigned for a pamphlet against Dutch rule, and had for advocate Van de Weyer, now Embassador at London; eighteen months' imprisonment and 1,000 florins fine made him a popular idol. A fresh article in Le Courrier des Pays Bas got him eight years' exile, from which he returned in a few months to sign, foremost, the decree, 3d October, 1830, proclaiming the independence of Belgium. He is author of an admirable life of Scipio Ricci, Bishop of Pistoia, to whom Tuscany owes its Leopoldine laws in Church Matters, and the comparative purification of its Christian worship. Born at Bruges, in 1786, he spent his old age in retirement.

—A country newspaper, recording the running down of a cow on the railway, said it was "cut into calves." An astonished naturalist waited on the editor, for what the auctioneers call "further information," and received it in the following form: "Erratum—For calves, read halves."

Wheat Turning to "Cheat."

This subject has been much argued by correspondents, in our columns. The real point at issue is, does wheat ever degenerate into cheat, (or chess), or is the latter an entirely distinct species of plant, first and last? We are not about to discuss the question, but to state a fact. Dr. W. B. Thompson, of Fayetteville, Brown Co., has recently shown us a head of wheat, injured by frost, on one side of which (where it evidently grew) there is a small head of cheat, containing seven well-formed seeds. It is a botanical curiosity, to say the least, and the fact of wheat and cheat growing on the same stalk, in this instance, we can vouch for.—Cincinnati Gazette.

TO THE BE-DRUGGED AND
Poisoned Citizens of Chicago.
You are overrun with a deluge of the vilest compounds in the form of "ALCOHOLIC DRINKS"
That ever emanated from that pest of society, the Liquor Mixer.
They are sold to you as a luxury, or they are dispensed to you as a medicine, and in either case the effect is the same.
There is but one way to escape, and that is to use as a luxury or a medicine, a safe and reliable stimulant, sold under stamp and seal, which renders it certain that it has not been tampered with. Such an art
Charles' London Cordial Gin,
Which is distilled under inspection of the British Government, is delicately flavored (unlike any other, Gin) with some of the most valuable restoratives of the
VEGETABLE KINGDOM,
And is by far the most healthy beverage extant.
The most eminent physicians of Europe and America, not only recommend its use by the hale and hearty, but prescribe it as a medicine where a stimulant is required.
The female sex will find it not only a pleasant
CORDIAL,
But a certain relief in sufferings of a periodical character.
Analytical chemists of all ranks pronounce it perfectly pure, and its restorative merits incomparable.
Sold only in quart and pint bottles by all Druggists, Grocers, etc. PENTON & CO.,
94 Lake street,

The dose must be adapted to the temperament of the individual taking it, and used in such quantities as to act gently on the Bowels. Let the dictates of your judgment guide you in the use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR, and it will cure Liver Complaints, Bilious Attacks, Dyspepsia,	LIVER INVIGORATOR.	Chronic Diarrhea, Summer Complaints, Dysentery, Dropsy, Sour Stomach, Habitual Costiveness, Colic, Cholera, Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Flatulence, Jaundice, Female Weaknesses, and may be used successfully as an Ordinary Family Medicine. It will cure SICK HEADACHE, (as thousands can testify,) in twenty minutes, if two or three Teaspoonfuls are taken at commencement of attack.

All who are using it are giving testimony in its favor.
☞ Mix Water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

—ALSO—
Sanford's Family Cathartic Pills,
COMPOUNDED FROM
PURE VEGETABLE EXTRACTS, and put up in GLASS CASES AIR TIGHT, AND WILL KEEP IN ANY CLIMATE.

The Family Cathartic PILL is a gentle but active Cathartic which the proprietor has used in his practice more than twenty years. The constantly increasing demand from those who have long used the PILLS, and the satisfaction which all express in regard to their use, has induced me to place them within the reach of all	CATHARTIC PILLS.	The Profession well know that different Cathartics act on different portions of the bowels. The Family Cathartic Pill has, with due reference to this well established fact, been compounded from a variety of the purest Vegetable Extracts, which act alike on every part of the alimentary canal, and are good and safe in all cases where a Cathartic is needed, such as Derangements of the Stomach, Sleepiness, Pains in the back and Loins, Costiveness, Pain and Soreness over the whole body, from sudden cold, which frequently, if neglected, end in a long course of Fever, Loss of Appetite, a Creeping Sensation of Cold over the body, Restlessness, Headache, or weight in the head, all Inflammatory Diseases, Worms in Children or Adults, Rheumatism, a great Purifier of the Blood, and many diseases to which flesh is heir, too numerous to mention in this advertisement. Dose, 1 to 3.

Price Three Dimes.
The Liver Invigorator and Family Cathartic Pills are retailed by Druggists generally, and sold wholesale by the Trade in all the large towns.

MORE TO BE ADMIRED
THAN THE RICHEST DIADEM
EVER
Worn by Kings or Emperors.
What? Why a Beautiful Head of Hair.
Because it is the ornament God Himself provided for all our race. Reader, although the rose may bloom ever so brightly in the glowing cheek, the eye be ever so sparkling, the teeth be those of pearls, if the head is bereft of its covering, or the hair be snarled and shrivelled, harsh and dry, or worse still, if sprinkled with gray, nature will lose more than half her charms. Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative, if used two or three times a week, will restore and permanently secure to all such an ornament. Read the following and judge. The writer of the first is the celebrated Pianist, Thalberg:
NEW YORK, April 19, 1858.
DR. WOOD:—Dear Sir: Permit me to express to you the obligations I am under for the entire restoration of my hair to its original color; about the time of my arrival in the United States it was rapidly becoming gray, but upon the application of your "Hair Restorative" it soon recovered its original hue. I consider your Restorative as a very wonderful invention, quite efficacious as well as agreeable.
I am, dear sir, yours truly, S. THALBERG.
"Drych a'r Gwyliedydd."
Welsh Newspaper office, 13 Nassau-st., April 12, 1858.
PROF. O. J. WOOD:—Dear Sir: Some month or six weeks ago I received a bottle of your Hair Restorative and gave it my wife, who concluded to try it on her hair, little thinking at the time that it would restore the gray hair to its original color, but to her as well as my surprise, after a few weeks' trial it has performed that wonderful effect by turning all the gray hairs to a dark brown, at the same time beautifying and thickening the hair. I strongly recommend the above Restorative to all persons in want of such a change of their hair. CHARLES CARDEW.
NEW YORK, July 25, 1857.
PROF. O. J. WOOD:—With confidence do I recommend your Hair Restorative, as being the most efficacious article I ever saw. Since using your Hair Restorative my hair and whiskers which were almost white have gradually grown dark; and I now feel confident that a few more applications will restore them to their natural color. It also has relieved me of all dandruff and unpleasant itching, so common among persons who perspire freely. J. G. KILBY.

The Religious Revival in Ireland—Its Extent and Origin.

The Belfast Chronicle, of this week, gives the following interesting particulars as to the rise and progress of the present religious movement in Ireland:

As I see some statements in relation to the great religious excitement in Ireland, which are not very accurate, I will devote the whole of this letter to that subject, and will lay before your readers as accurate a view of it as I can gather from the published documents within my reach. I doubt not that this is the most wonderful religious movement in the Church history of modern times, and there is nothing like it in the past. It is changing the social, the mental, and moral aspects of society where it prevails, and onward the tide of holy influence is rolling with increasing power.

This work at present, then, is confined to the North of Ireland. It extends over five counties in that part of the island. Belfast, Coleraine, and Londonderry are the centre of its influence, though not of its origin, but the smaller towns and villages for mile around are under its power. There is nothing impassioned, excitable, or superstitious in the character of the people. Unlike the Celts of the South and the West, who are full of these elements, they are the descendants of the men of the "English pale," and exhibit many of the features of the Saxon character. It is the stronghold of Protestant influence, and Presbyterianism is the prevalent ecclesiastical element among the dissidents from the Church. The latter has great weight, the churches of the body are numerous, the ministers men of mental power, and rich and varied culture. Nothing can be further from enthusiasm than the ministry of these men. I only need mention the names of Dr. Cook, Professor Edgar, Gibson, McCosh, and others, who have uttered their solemn conviction that the work is of God, and are giving now their whole soul to its guidance and advancement.

The origin of this movement is of singular interest. The same agency, in the main, as marked more or less, the commencement of your great work, has been employed here. Prayer in both cases was the spring from which these streams of blessedness flow. Nothing in the state of the Church to warrant the expectation. Everything was going on as usual. The same usual round of formal services. Ministers met their people and preached. A few attended prayer meetings; congregations in many places small, and a cold, dead formality reigned more or less in all sects. No special means were employed to disturb this spiritual repose —no particular wakening up of minister and people marked it—God would work in his own way, showing us that by the feeblest agency he could accomplish the most marvellous moral effects, and that he could dignify faith and prayer. As far as I can gather from the principal accounts which are before me, the origin was as follows:

In one case a pious lady is on a visit to the North. She becomes deeply interested in the spiritual condition of a poor old man. She visits, reads and prays with him, again and again she does this. The dark mind at last opens to the light, and the hard heart is touched by the Saviour's love. He is converted. Within his own heart a deep anxiety springs up for the conversion of his wife. He cannot repress it. Under the influence of the same truth she is brought, and her aged spirit rejoices in Christ. They tell their new born joy to others. They invite their neighbors and friends to pray with them and share their happiness. The revival in that locality was begun.

In another part four young men were converted. The condition of the Sunday School and the prayer meeting soon fixed their attention. To pray for their success and improvement was their immediate resolve. Month after month, though anxiously they watched for signs of improvement, still they saw none. Delay did not quench their zeal. Faith in the Divine promise sustained them, and they prayed on till the spirit came with power, and the revival began. Everywhere, and by all parties, the work, which is now rolling onward a tide of blessing over this district is attributed entirely to this.

REV. GEORGE GILFILLAN ON THE IRISH REVIVALS.

In a discourse on the text, "Worship the Father in spirit and in truth," lately delivered by Rev. George Gilfillan, he took occasion at the close to make some remarks on the subject of religious revivals. He said that, while granting the crying necessity of revival in the Church, he thought the more quietly the work was prosecuted, the more likely it was to be permanent. He did not approve of incessant appeals to the base sentiment of fear, and thought that the threat of material fire and brimstone had now little effect, except to make the wicked gnash their teeth in defiance, and become more hardened in their profligacy. He believed that no revival could last, unless it was founded upon the basis of a broad Christianity, and upon the doctrine of the love of God in Christ. He characterised some of the revivals of the past. Geo. Whitfield, the most eloquent of men, made a profound impression at the time, but it was not lasting. He did not even succeed in founding a sect, and this was owing to the fact that he appealed principally to feeling, passion and fear. He had seen something of the Dundee revival of 1839, and believed it to have done good, but also to have done ill. It created in some an unhealthy excitement, and drove others to downright insanity. He had visited some people under its influence, and felt certain that they were more injured than benefited by it. As to the Irish revival he had great doubts. The excesses of excitement; the cries, shrieks, groans uttered; people carried out of church in fits; some driven mad and others hurried into extravagances of fierce and savage fanaticism—all tended to convince him that, let Dr. Cook, of Belfast, say what he pleased, it was hitherto as authentic a work of the devil as was ever transacted on this planet. There were, he understood, people who wished us to take a pattern from our Irish friends; but he would tell his people to be on their guard. Hitherto, in Dundee, the so called revival movement had been conducted with propriety and decorum. The lay preachers were, he believed, good men, and were doing good; but he had no great faith in large public meetings of a revival cast; no belief that revivals could be pumped up by any mechanical means, and thought that people would improve in religious matters by reading their Bibles, cultivating their minds by varied useful reading, and instructing their children and households, than by seeking after unusual and morbid means of excitement.—London Inquirer.

Improved Breech-Loading Rifle.

Lancaster's latest improvements in firearms, a breech-loading rifle, is highly spoken of in the English journals. This rifle is that class in which, when the piece is to be loaded, the barrel is drawn forward from the breech, and turned down, so as to present its rear and receive the charge; and Mr. L's. late improvements are four in number. They consist, first, in undercutting the abutment or stationary breech against which the barrels rest when ready for firing, and in cutting the rear of the barrels to correspond, in such manner that when the barrels and breech are in contact the overhanging part of the breech prevents the barrels from rising. Second, in forming sunken recesses in the inclined face of the breech to enable the rear end of the cartridges to be supported in their own plane, that is, square to the bore. Third, in fitting the strikers, which carry the points for exploding the cartridges, without springs, the points and strikers being pushed back by the cartridge coming in contact with the points when the rear of the barrels is forced home in the breech. Fourth, in constructing the extractor or instrument whereby the cartridges are pushed out from the rear of the barrels when they are tilted preparatory to re-loading, in such manner that the extractor takes the cartridges at two points, and embraces a considerably larger portion of the capsule or rear of the cartridges than heretofore. With this rifle, thus improved in its construction, escape of gas at the breech is impossible, the metallic end of the cartridge remaining intact during the discharge.

Broadcloth the Enemy of Health.

Professor Hamilton, in an able address on hygiene to the graduates of the Buffalo Medical College, denounces broadcloth as an enemy to exercise, and therefore to health. His remarks are pointed and sensible. He says:

American gentlemen have adopted as a national costume, broadcloth—a thin, tight fitting black suit of broadcloth. To foreigners, we seem always to be in mourning; we travel in black, we write in black, and we work in black. The priest, the lawyer, the doctor, the literary man, the mechanic and even the day laborer, choose always the same unvarying, monotonous black broadcloth; a style and material which never ought to have been adopted out of the drawing room or the pulpit; because it is a feeble and expensive fabric; because it is at the North no suitable protection against the cold, nor is it indeed any more suitable at the South. It is too thin to be warm in the winter, and too black to be cool in the summer; but especially do we object to it because the wearer is always soiling it by exposure. Young gentlemen will not play ball, or pitch quoits, or wrestle and tumble, or any other similar thing, lest their broadcloth should be offended. They will not go out into the storm, because the broadcloth will lose its lustre if rain falls upon it; they will not run because they have no confidence in the strength of the broadcloth; they dare not mount a horse, or leap a fence, because broadcloth, as everybody knows, is so faithless. So these young men, and these older men, merchants, mechanics, and all, learn to walk, talk and think soberly and carefully; they seldom venture even to laugh to the full extent of their sides.

The Orthodoxy of Mr. Choate.

We hope that it will, at some time or other, be settled whether the late Hon. Rufus Choate was a Christian or not. The late Dr. Adams says that he was, and has preached voluminous discourses upon that point. The only decisive evidence which we have, apart from the certificate of Dr. Adams, is that given by another Doctor (of Physic) at a mausoleum-meeting in Charleston, the grief of which was tremendous, not to say Niobean. This was to the effect that Mr. Choate once made to him the following "characteristic" remark: "Dr. Thompson, I'll be d—d if I don't." This, we think, settles the matter, and if it does not satisfy the Rev. Dr. Adams to satiety, we hope that he will write to us upon the subject.—N. Y. Tribune.

Annexation of Maine to Canada.

The Montreal Pilot wants to acquire the State of Maine, and says:

"Portland will still have to be our Atlantic terminus for the season, and we now feel more than ever the effects of that stupidity, which, in settling the boundaries between Canada and the United States, was the means of depriving us of what should have been ours.—the through right of passage to the sea-board. Every now and then Cousin Jonathan is fond of twitting us about our annexation proclivities—and the certainty that one day Canada will become part and parcel of the United States. There are many wonders, no doubt, looming in the distance; but we do not think this is likely to be one of them. If Canada, could, however, by annexation, purchase, or in any other way, acquire possession of the State of Maine—which of right ought to have been hers—it would conduce largely, and would add materially to our prosperity and our wealth."

Women Painting at Saratoga.

The ladies paint this season; it is all the rage. Not the old, the faded, those whose beauty is on the wane, but the young also: not rouge laid on with delicate fingers, and with tints hardly discernable to the eye, but laid on with a heavy hand, and with an openness that is worthy of a better cause. In the night the complexion really is dazzling, and the face wears a hue almost angelic in brilliancy. But in the morning, bah! the face looks boiled, and resembles a white enameled side of leather, cracked by the cold weather. If this habit was omitted, and the dresses outside were longer than the under dresses, or if the latter were of better material, if they must be seen, or were more comely, the crowds at this place would be more worthy of inspection. It is the universal remark that there are more commonly dressed women at Saratoga than in any other season, and this, too, is my judgment. Tinsel and untidyness do not go well together. On this account the balls are not attractive.—Saratoga Correspondence of the Boston Journal.

Old Buck and the Widow.

It has been suggested that Mr Buchanan, in view of the dreadful loss sustained by the widow at Bedford Spring, Pa., of her young colored woman who curled hair so beautifully, should tender to the widow the market value of the slave. This would be at least just. For if the widow had not been so sedulously, and we may say patriotically engaged in solacing the qualms, internal agitations and stomachic convulsions of the Chief Magistrate while taking the water, she could have kept a double eye upon the young hair-dresser who ran away. We are not sure that an appropriation by Congress—considering the President's position—would not be the proper thing; and we should not be surprised if the President's sense suggested something of that kind in a special message. At any rate if Congress does not pay, the President should.—N. Y. Tribune.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.

The London Critic, and other English journals state positively that the author of Adam Bede is Miss Mary Ann Evans, of Coventry, already known to the literary world by her remarkable translation of Strauss' Life of Jesus.

—Mr. Powell, whose picture of the Discovery of the Mississippi by De Soto adorns the rotunda of the Capitol at Washington, has been commissioned by the State of Ohio to paint the Battle of Lake Erie for the Capitol of that State. Mr. Powell was in Providence yesterday to visit Dr. Parsons, who is, we believe, the last surviving commissioned officer attached to the flag-ship on that day, and to obtain from him certain details for the picture.—Providence Journal, 19th.

—A son of Cassius M. Clay, while gunning recently, was bitten on the foot by some poisonous reptile, supposed to be a rattlesnake, and his body immediately exhibited all the symptoms of the most virulent poisoning; but he was dosed until stupefied with apple brandy, and the next morning was as well as ever. So confident was Mr. Clay of the efficacy of alcoholic spirits in all cases of poison by the bites of snakes and insects, that he did not even send for a physician. Saleratus was bound upon the bitten spot until ammonia could be procured, when the former was moistened with it. This was upon the theory that poison is an acid, and only alkali will answer, though ammonia is thought to be the best.

—Rev. Henry Ward Beecher says of the "items column" in the newspapers, that it "is worth more than all the small fry of correspondents, with an editor thrown in to boot! Like a caravan, it stretches along in columns, with packages and parcels, spices and gems, bits of fragrance or cunningly wrought metals, gathered from the Orient and from the whole world besides. The items of the paper, like the stuffing of a Thanksgiving turkey, represent everything in the house, crusts of bread, crackers and all spices."

HEALTH OF FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE.—The correspondent of the Manchester Guardian says: "I am sorry to learn, apropos of military hygiene, that Miss Florence Nightingale continues to lose strength under her continued labors. The scenes and sufferings of the Crimea made a deep and abiding impression on her devoted and deep nature. She determined after her return to give herself up to the removal of the manifest sources of that evil which she had beheld in full play in the lazar house of Scutari, and under the dismal hospital marquees before Sebastopol. Ever since the conclusion of peace she has been laboring at the work of barrack and hospital improvement, with a view to the amelioration of the health of the soldier and the increase of his comforts. She has persevered in this labor in spite of impaired health and failing strength, and she has told her friends, when they remonstrate with her, and urge her to take repose, that it is her vocation; she must work at these objects till either she sinks at her work or sees it accomplished. She has all along been the right arm of the Barrack and Hospital Commission, and, with them, has had to struggle against all the entanglements of red tape, and the obstacles of a vis inertia, and prejudice against improvements which are difficult for civilians even to conceive.'

SOMETHING NEW!!!

MITCHELL'S PATENT

Metallic-Tipped Boot and Shoe.

An improvement has been applied to Boots and Shoes, by which a Great Saving in Expense is made. Every Boot and Shoe Dealer knows that Children will wear out at the toe the best constructed shoes in four to six weeks, and that it has hitherto defied the skill of manufacturers to obviate this difficulty.

THE "METALLIC TIP"

meets and overcomes it. A small piece of copper is neatly fastened to the toe of the Boot or Shoe, affording a complete protection to it, and rendering the efforts of the most inveterate stamper ineffectual to kick or wear it out.

We present this invention with the fullest knowledge of and experience in its Practical Utility. Having now for nearly two years been subjected to the severest tests, it has by its own intrinsic merits, actually surmounted every objection that could possibly be brought against it, as the accompanying certificates, which are but a fair average of hundreds of others, will abundantly corroborate. We have no hesitation in saying that the Metallic-Tipped Shoe is destined to entirely supercede, for Children and Youth, the old style; and we consider it a moderate statement, that one pair of the Metallic Tips will outwear two to three pairs of the old style, making a saving of nearly two-thirds in the expense of shoes.

MESSRS. WADSWORTH & WELLS,

Desirable lots may be had at reasonable rates on five year's time by simply paying six per cent interest on condition of improvement or on perpetual lease at two per cent. on valuation for first five years, subject to appraisal every five years at six per cent. SEMINARY FOR YOUNG LADIES, AT LAKE FOREST.

Rev. Baxter Dickinson, D. D., and Daughters, from Boston, will open a first class Seminary for Young Ladies the latter part of September next, at Lake Forest, Ill., the seat of Lind University.

The entire responsibility of instruction will devolve upon the Misses Dickinson, who were educated at the best Eastern Institutions, and have had experience in teaching. The course of study will comprise the various branches, solid and ornamental, of an accomplished female education. A limited number of young ladies will be received into the family, and have in all respects, a careful and kind supervision. Letters of inquiry may be addressed to Dr. Dickinson, at Kenosha, Wisconsin. Early application is desirable.

[From Rev. Dr. Kirk, of Boston.]

Understanding that the Misses Dickinson intend opening a school of the first class, I take great pleasure in congratulating the citizens of Chicago and vicinity on the acquisition of such an educational influence. To natural amiableness, good sense, piety, and true refinement, the young ladies of this family add the intellectual and accomplishments necessary to conduct a school of the highest character.

Boston. 1859. EDWARD N. KIRK.

[From Rev. Dr. Patterson, of Chicago.]

I have been acquainted with Dr. Dickinson and his family for many years, and knowing the reputation of the Misses Dickinson as ladies of superior culture and attainments, and as successful teachers, I feel assured that they will give the fullest satisfaction to the patrons of their Seminary for young ladies. BY TELEGRAPH.

Later from Denver City.

St. Louis, Aug. 22.—A special dispatch to the Democrat says, Denver City advices to the 12th inst., reached Leavenworth to-day. Rich discoveries had been made at the Medicine Bow Mountains, 150 miles northwest of Cherry Creek. The excitement in regard to the new diggings at the head waters of the South Platte continued unabated; large numbers were daily leaving, both north and south. Seven persons arrived at Atchison to day with over 100 ounces gold.

Leavenworth, Aug. 23.—The Denver City express of the 16th inst. has arrived bringing six passengers and $16,000 in dust. A portion of the recently framed State Constitution has been published. There is no allusion to the slavery question in the bill of rights. Suffrage is restricted to the whites. The local papers are silent in that respect. The richest discoveries made since the last arrival are between Cape La Pandre River and Cheyenne Pass, although the opening of new leads is of daily occurrence.

There was a great rush toward the Cheyenne Pass, where it was reported that from $100 to $1,000 were made per day by the single hand. Rich quartz is found in abundance everywhere. Emigration is light, but steady. Business at Denver City was brisk. Merchandize and provisions selling cheap.

The Omaha Republican says that Charles Leslie of Marion County, Penn., arrived there on the 14th with 1,033 ounces of gold dust from Clear Creek. Leslie professes to have discovered the richest diggings yet found. He returns to the States for the purpose of procuring quartz crushing mills to work them.

Riot Near Philadelphia.

Philadelphia, Aug. 23.—A serious riot took place at Tacony yesterday afternoon. A great number of persons had been attracted to that point by a sailing match, a picnic by the pupils of St. Vincent's Sunday School, and a target firing by the Franklin Rifle Co., a German volunteer organization. There was a strong gathering of rowdy hangers-on.

The rowdies commenced the fight as usual, and amused themselves by pelting the Germans. Three persons were seriously stabbed, and carried off by their friends.

The Franklin Rifle Company then marched down to the wharf, where they were assaulted with a shower of stones, bricks, &c. The members of the Rifles retaliated with the butts of their pieces, and several of them were broken and the pieces strew about the landing. One of the officers fought with his sword. He was knocked down and his sword taken from his hand by a police officer, who thought the infuriated Teuton behaved like a madman. Soon after this some of the members of the Company loaded their rifles with pebbles and fired into the crowd of their assailants. Two persons were wounded, but their injuries are not of a serious character.

The police used their utmost effort to put a stop to the row, and were partially successful. The steamboat Thos. A. Morgan stopped at Tacony at 7 o'clock, when soldiers, rioters and policemen, including a squad of officers from Frankfort, embarked on board for the city, where the parties landed peacefully.

The rowdies groaned and hissed as the company marched from the landing, but otherwise there was no attempt to create a disturbance. Three of the members of the Rifle Company were cut about the head in a shocking manner.

Rioting on a Steamer—Murder Committed.

Baltimore, Aug. 23.—The Baltimore Sun, of this morning, publishes an account of a dreadful series of outrages, perpetrated on Saturday night, on board the steamboat Express, which left here the same evening with a large company for the camp meeting at Chaptank River.

After getting some distance from port, a party of rowdies rallying under cries of Eubatis, Banters and Ripraps, made an indiscriminate assault upon the white and colored passengers. Several were knocked down, stabbed or horribly beaten. Several white men were robbed of their watches and money, the assailants blowing out the lights to prevent recognition. A colored man was stabbed, and his wife outraged in his presence.

On Sunday morning the Sheriff of Dorchester County arrested four of the ringleaders and committed them to jail. One colored man is said to have died of his wounds.

Hugh Sullivan was shot in the head, and instantly killed last night, when on his way home, about 12 o'clock. Several arrests have been made. The coroner's inquest is now engaged in investigating the circumstances leading to the murder.

The yacht Haswell, of Providence, from Richmond, arrived here this A. M. in twenty-three hours from Old Point Comfort.

American State Council.

Geneva, N. Y., Aug. 23.—Quite a number of prominent American politicians have congregated here, to attend the American State Council which met to-day.

The struggle will be on the time of holding the next State Convention.

Daniel Ullman, who, it is said, represents the policy of Thurlow Weed, will oppose a call of the Convention on the same day the Republicans hold theirs, in order that the latter may not be embarrassed by any union openly with the Americans.

The Buffalo delegation, who favor a union, and act with the anti-Weed Republicans, advocate the holding of the Convention on the 7th of September, at Syracuse, so as to force the Republican Convention either to recognize the Americans or drive them into an open rupture.

The chances thus far seem to be in favor of the calling of the Convention to meet on the 21st of September.

Disturbances in Kansas.

Leavenworth, Aug 22.—Some confirmation of the reports of the outbreak in the South has reached here. One of the Jay Hawkers has been taken into Missouri. Montgomery was reported in the field, and it is expected he will attempt his recapture. Considerable uneasiness existed, and a renewal of disturbances is anticipated.

Another Trot Between Flora Temple and Princess.

Boston, Aug. 23.—A trot between Flora Temple and Princess for a purse of $1,000, mile heats, best three in five, came off this P. M. Flora won three straight heats, making time as follows: first, 2:33; second, 2:26; third, 2:34.

Virginia Politics.

Baltimore, Va., Aug. 23.—A large meeting of the Opposition was held here last night. Resolutions were passed expressing a preference for Jno. M. Botts, for President, and recommending the holding of a State Convention during the fall.

Peninsular Bank of Detroit Gone to Protest.

New York, Aug. 23.—The Peninsular Bank of Detroit went to protest to-day upon the drafts upon the Bank of the State. It is one of the oldest banks in Michigan.

Gold Exports to Europe.

New York, Aug. 23.—The Hammonia for Hamburg, to-morrow, will take about $100,000 in gold and $50,009 in silver. The Arabia, from Boston, takes none from this city.

Financial and Commercial.

MONETARY.

Tuesday Evening, Aug. 23.

Exchange is kept by bankers to-day nominally at 2¼ per cent. premium, in order as we surmise, to charge that price on collections; but we believe nearly, if not quite all of them sold freely to customers at 2½. The demand for currency is more active, and shipments must rapidly increase, and hence a further decline in exchange may confidently be expected.

The money market is close, owing to the greater activity beginning to be manifest in business circles. Discounts are confined to the necessities of best customers.

Gold 2½ premium, with very little changing hands on any terms.

Rates outside of bank show no change from former figures. Very little money can be had outside of bank on any terms.

St. Louis.—The Democrat of yesterday reports several purchases of Pike's Peak Gold from returned miners. Last week's statement of the seven St. Louis banks shows a circulation of $778,365; exchange maturing $3,317,438; specie, 986,750. The German Savings Institution reports coin on hand, $40,287.12; coin subject to draft in New York and elsewhere $28,708.75; exchange maturing, $57,187.79. The Boatman's Saving's Institution has coin, $206,468.95; exchange maturing and matured, $393,330.36.

The Democrat says;

Money is becoming closer, daily. One of the heaviest houses had offering yesterday of over twice as much paper as usual; it discounted only about half of it, but still more than usual. Exchange on the East is in good demand, but still not so great as it was a week since; it is possible the people have not money with which to pay for it. Yet the moneyed houses generally only have supplies for their regular customers, even at 1½ premium for Missouri money—a few sell to some outsiders also, though refusing to a good many. For gold, which is in demand, all can buy exchange at ⅛@¼@¼ premium.

Cincinnati—The Gazette of this morning says:

With one or two exceptions, bankers reported a limited demand for money, and in every quarter the supply was fully equal to the offerings of good paper. The latter was taken freely at 10@12 per cent. Currency is becoming more plenty, indicating improved collections, and altogether matters present a more cheerful appearance than we have noticed for several weeks past.

As collections improve, and the supply of currency increases, the demand for Eastern Exchange becomes more active. The sales to-day were larger than usual for Monday, and some of the dealers did not supply their customers, but these parties were able to buy all they needed at other houses, and thus the demand was fully met at ⅛ premium.

Gold is not much inquired for. About $15,000 was purchased to-day, of a dealer, partly to fill an order from a country bank, at ⅛ prem. The bill market is quiet but steady. Good paper is saleable at 6@8 for Eastern, and 9@12 for Southern. We quote:—

	Buying.	Selling.
New York Sight	[illegible] prem.	[illegible] prem.
American Gold	[illegible] prem.	[illegible] prem.

There was a good demand for Missouri currency to-day, at 1½ discount, and for Illinois and Wisconsin at 2½. There is getting to be some demand from the produce trade for the latter, and the tendency is to lower rates of discount.

New York.—The Herald of yesterday has the following:

Money has grown cheaper since last week. The last bank statement had the effect of restoring confidence to money lenders who had withdrawn their means from the market. Since last Monday the inquiry for paper at the discount brokers has been more active than for some time past, and we are enabled to quote money nearly one per cent lower on average mercantile paper.

No transactions are publicly reported below seven per cent, but we hear of prime short acceptance being privately taken at 6@6½c. For first class double name paper, maturing this year, seven is the rule; for longer paper, 8 to 10. Names less generally known, or less popular, go at 8 to 12, according to quality. On call the brokers are abundantly supplied at six. The banks continue to ask seven, and some of the well known commission houses have money left with them at 5@5½. At this season there is never much demand for money. As the fall months progress it will be safe to look for a more active market.

Virginia Banks in Discredit.—The Bank of Weston and the Bank of Manassas having failed to redeem their notes in Richmond or Baltimore, according to law, are thrown out by the brokers.—Gwynne, Day & Co.'s N. Y. Bank Note Detecter.

COMMERCIAL.

Tuesday Evening, Aug. 23, 1859.

Weekly Review—The Crops.—All over the Northwest the work of threshing the Spring crops is going on vigorously. The yield of Wheat in the northern portion of Illinois is about equal to expectation; but towards the central part of the State, the heads, on account of the dry weather, were not so well filled, and the yield is not so good as was anticipated. Oats and Barley are a fair yield—the latter having escaped being stained by foul weather. The Corn crop throughout the southern and central portions of the State looks well, and the promise is favorable; but in some of the northern counties—Winnebago, Boone and Stephenson,—the want of rain has been felt. The same is true of potatoes in the northern part of the State, and the crop there will be very small. The Corn crop in Iowa is good; and in fact all over the Northwest, with the exception of a few counties, we hear of nothing but a large Corn crop. Unless the early frosts injure it, it will be the largest crop the West ever saw. The weather during the week has been moderately warm and slightly showery.

The Wheat market opened very firm this morning for all grades, and the full prices of yesterday were freely paid, in some instances even an advance of 1@2c. Before the close, however, buyers who were operating principally to fill out cargoes, withdrew, and the market declined 1@2c from the highest point reached in the morning. There was a fair demand for Red Winter, and for No. 2 an advance of 1@2c was paid. No. 1 White continues very scarce, and in good demand both by millers and shippers. The transactions to-day foot up about 38,000 bushels of all grades, at 92c for No. 1 Red; 78@79c for No. 2 Red; 86c for No. 2 White; 79@80c for No. 1 Spring; and 75@77c for No. 2 Spring—the market closing quiet at the inside figures. Flour was heavy, and 5c lower, with little or no demand. Corn opened very firm at 62c for No. 1 in store, but declined 1c before the close. The day's transactions foot up about 18,000 bushels, at 64@64½c for Canal afloat; 61@62c for No. 1 in store; and 59c for No. 2 in store—closing quiet but firm at the inside quotations. Oats were in good demand and steady at yesterday's figures. About 9,000 bushels were sold at 25½@27c for No. 1 in store, and 28½c for Canal afloat. Rye dull and declined 3@4c—with sales at 52@54c for No. 1 in store. A small lot of new No. 2 Barley was sold at 35c in store. Timothy Seed was more active. About 650 bushels were sold at $1.95 delivered. No Clover offering. Highwines quiet at 23@23½c. Alcohol, 51c. Dry Salted Shoulders in bulk are in request—with sales at 6½c. Bacon Shoulders scarce and firm at 7½@8c. Canvassed Hams, 10@11c. No Plain in market. Hides dull.

Breadstuffs in New York.—The N. Y. Evening Post of Saturday last contains the following:

Business on the Corn Exchange the past week has been more active, and prices of breadstuffs to-day close firm. Flour opened dull and heavy early in the week, but the decline is recovered under a good home demand, with a moderate business in unsound descriptions for export. The receipts have been larger, but the stock in store is very limited. Wheat has fluctuated considerably, but closes firm for choice qualities. Current prices are much above the limits of export orders. Our export tables below show the first shipment for several months—1,823 bushels to Glasgow at $1 per bushel. Corn has been moderately active—the stock of new is very light, especially Southern.

There has been quite a movement in mess pork. $14.25 has been paid to-day, which is 75 cents above Wednesday's prices. Beef is still dull. One cause of the depression in salt meats is the light consumptive demand, which is rendered more limited by the low prices of fresh meat.

The subjoined table shews the value of the shipments of six leading articles of breadstuffs and provisions for the week ending Aug. 18th, and since January 1st, compared with the corresponding period last year:

The Wheat Crop.—A grain buyer writes as follows regarding the wheat in Southern Illinois:—

Salem, Aug. 20, 1859.

I have seen a great many articles in your dailies in regard to the wheat crop that has just been harvested—I refer more particularly to this locality better known as Egypt. It is very true we had a heavy crop of straw, and our farmers were very much elated about their prospects—but since they have begun to thresh, they find they have very little Wheat. The most of our farmers thought they would have twelve to fifteen bushels to the acre, but it only turns out from six to eight bushels, and not very good at that. Respectfully yours,

A Grain Buyer.

Cleveland—Aug. 20.—Receipts and Shipments for the Week.—The Leader furnishes the following table of receipts and shipments for last week:

RECEIPTS.		SHIPMENTS.

Flour, brls	831	Wheat, bu	1781

On the 20th the sales of wheat were:—111 bu Red at $1.05; 300 bu do at 1.08; 700 bu White at 1.11@1.12. Corn 75c. Oats 33@34c.

Pittsburgh—Aug. 22.—600 bu Mediterranean Wheat at 1.22 from depot; 150 bu White Wheat at 1.25; 700 bu Red at 1.18@1.25. 100 bu Corn at 85c. 250 bu Oats at 46c, and 100 bu do at 48c. Hay 12.00@17.00 per ton.

Indianapolis, August 20.—The Indianapolis Journal thus reviews the grain market:

Flour is less firm, and we quote to-day at $4.40@4.60. Wheat is held higher in proportion than flour is, and rules at 80@85c—buyers discriminating between red and white and between well cleaned and dirty wheat. Wheat is relatively too high. It is higher than it is in Philadelphia or New York, and in the absence of any active home demand prices must remain stationary or drop. We think they must be lower. There is nothing to warrant a continuance of present rates. Corn is 75@80c, and held firmly.

Toledo, Aug. 22.—Receipts are increasing somewhat; the footing to-day showing 16,035 bu wheat; 3,492 bbls flour; 610 bu corn; 550 bu oats. Market at the close feels the influence of the eastern improvement. Sales were more readily made at the opening, however, at a slight concession. Flour—sale of 80 bbls extra at $4.60. Wheat—sales of red, 2,000 bu at $1; 350 bu and 350 bu at same; of white, 3,000 bu at $1.07; 3,000 bu at same figures. Corn—no sales. Oats—some inquiry for Cincinnati; sales 800 bu at 32c; 600 bu at 32c.

Montreal—Aug. 20—Flour steady but dull; superfine 4.50 to 4.70; fancy, 5.00; extra, 5.25; unbrandable dull at 3.25 to 3.80. Grain—nothing to report. Bank drafts on New York ½ premium.

Cincinnati, Aug. 22.—Receipts, 3,923 bbls flour: 3,107 bu corn; 4,830 bu wheat; 3.878 bu oats. The Gazette of this morning says:—

There is a want of activity in the flour market, owing to the firmness of holders. The latter are waiting for prices to get up to a shipping point in New York, and buyers are also awaiting the establishment of a shipping margin. The quotation there to-day was $5.30, being an advance of 5@10 cents over Saturday's price. We notice a fair demand for Wheat at 95@98c for red, and $1.08@1.10 for White. Corn declined to 77 cents for mixed. There is no new Barley offering, and but little old. The former is nominal, and the latter may be quoted at 60. A fair demand for Oats at 40@41c. Bacon is in fair request at 7@9½c for Shoulders, but the offerings are gaining somewhat upon the demand. Common canvassed Hams sold as 10½@11c, packed and plain do at 8½c loose. Nothing done in Pork or Lard. Groceries continue in fair demand at steady prices. Whisky was in active request, and prices advanced to 24c.

Milwaukee, Aug. 22.—Receipts, 4,191 bush wheat; 278 bbls flour; 300 bu corn. The Sentinel of this morning says:

The wheat market opened pretty firm this morning and continued steady throughout the day at the figures ruling Saturday. A few small sales of flour took place at $3.75 to $5.50 for country to city spring extra, and $4.75 for country white winter. There were no receipts or sales of oats, and not much call for them. Prices have been above a shipping point here for some time past, and as soon as they commence coming to market in any quantity, unless prices advance at the East,—which is not at all probable,—there must be a decline. Corn remains firm and is scarce. It sold to-day at 62½c. Potatoes dull at 40 to 50c. Market for other articles quiet.

Weekly Review Chicago Market.

Tuesday Evening, Aug. 23.

FREIGHTS—Lake—During the past week, freights have been quiet—most of the cargoes being loaded on account of vessel. Rates have been steady at 3c for corn and 3½c for wheat to Buffalo. The following charters were made:—Schr. Craig, corn to Buffalo at 3c; propellers Cuyahoga and Free State, wheat to Buffalo at 3½c; brig Mariner and schooner Rival, wheat to Ogdensburgh at 7c and corn at 6c; propeller Iowa, corn and barle to Buffalo 3½c; schr. Monteagle, corn to Buffalo at 3c. To-day there were no engagements and there are quite a number of vessels offering. Through Freights—Flour to Montreal, via Port Sarnia and Hamilton, at 43c; via Collingwood and Grand Trunk Railway, 55c; via Collingwood and Toronto, 45c. Wheat to New York, via Buffalo, 13@13½; corn to New York, 12½c. Flour to New York, via Lake and Canal, 52c. Railroad Tariff—The following are the rates for carrying fourth-class goods, per 100 lbs: To Boston, all rail, 50c; do water from Philadelphia, 41c; to New York, 45c; to Philadelphia 40c; to Buffalo, Dunkirk and Cleveland 25; to Albany, 4[illegible]c to Pittsburgh, 30c.

FLOUR—Receipts last week, 14,592 brls; shipments 9,680 brls. The market during the great part of the week was dull and lifeless. During the past few days there has been some shipping inquiry for Spring Extras, made from New Spring Wheat, and the market in consequence was a shade firmer, with more activity. To-day, however, the demand is less, and prices tend downwards. Sales were:—100 brls choice Spring Extra at $3.95; 82 brls "Crescent" Red Winter at $4.25; 50 brls "Star Mills" White Winter at $5.50. The market for Winter brands has been very dull, and transactions have been mainly confined to city trade at $5@5.50 for White Winter, and $4.25@5.00 for Red Winter. We quote the closing prices as follows:

White Winter Extras	$[illegible]@5.50
Red " "	[illegible]@5.00
Spring Extras	3.50@3.95
Spring Superfine	2.75@3.00
Rye Flour	3.30@3.50
Middlings, ℔ ton	15.50@16.00
Corn Meal "	28.00@30.00

WHEAT—Receipts last week, 190,288 bu; shipments, 152,966 bu. During the past week the wheat market has been active and buoyant under a good export demand, and all grades have advanced in consequence from 5@8c per bushel. The principal inquiry has been for Spring grades—the demand for which is more than equal to the supply. There has also, however, been an increased inquiry for all kinds of Winter—especially No. 2 Red. No. 1 White is very scarce and in request at $1.05. A few days since all that was in store was taken at terms not made public. The receipts of this grade during the week have been very light. The advance in prices during the past week has proved very disastrous to speculators who had sold "short"—they having figured for a decline instead of an advance. We are happy to say however, that the transactions of the week have been almost entirely for shipment east—upwards of 10,000 bushels having been shipped to Pittsburgh, via, Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railway, to supply millers. There has been very little doing in old Wheat. A few lots of Standard were sold for delivery at 51c, and one lot of No. 1 Spring at 60c.

To-day the market opened very firm at the outside quotations of yesterday, but towards the close, buyers withdrew and it declined 1@2c. Sales were:—Winter—100 bu No 1 Red on track at 91c; 700 bu do at 91c in store; 2,500 bu do at 92c in store; 2,200 bu No 2 Red at 78c in store; 1,000 bushels do at 79c in store; 300 bushels No. 2 White at 86c in store. Spring—300 bu No 1 at 81c on track; 9,800 bu do in lots at 80c in store; 5,000 bu do in lots at 79c in store; 12,000 bu No 2 Spring at 77c in store; 4,000 bu do at 76c in store; 2,500 bu do at 75c in store.

The transactions of the week, day by day, will be found in the following table, the prices of each grade being given "in store":

New Rejected Spring sold during the week at 56@57c in store.

CORN—Receipts last week, 158,142 bu; shipments, 152,966 bu. The market during the past week has shown much greater activity, as the receipts and shipments indicate, and the amount in store has decreased some 50,000 bushels. At the opening, No. 1 Corn in store sold at 61@62c—advancing during the week to 63c—and closing at 61@62c—a pretty even market. The receipts by Canal have been more liberal, and sales were made at a range of 62@63½c afloat, according to quality. Very little has been done in No. 2 or Rejected, the stock of which is quite small.

To-day the market opened firm at 62c for No. 1, but declined to 61c before the close. Sales were: 5,000 bu Yellow Canal at 64½c afloat; 2,500 bu do at 64½c f.o.b.; 600 bu No. 1 at 62½c in store; 8,000 bu do at 62c in store; 2,000 bu do at 61½c in store; 1,200 bu do at 61c in store; 300 bu Rejected at 54c in store; 300 bu do at 55c in store.

The transactions of the week, day by day, will be found in the following table—the price of Canal being given "afloat" and all other grades "in store."

OATS—Receipts last week, 42,192 bu; shipments 11,858 bu. The market during the week has been more active, at enhanced rates—an advance of 1½@2c having been gained since our last week's review, notwithstanding the receipts have been nearly duplicated. The demand is principally for shipment east, although several lots have been shipped to Pittsburgh by rail. On the 17th inst., the market opened at 25c for No. 1 in store. On the 18th it advanced to 26c: on the 19th sales were at 25@26c; on the 20th, at 26c; on the 22d, 26@27c, and 28c for Canal afloat. To-day the market was quiet. Sales were: 500 bu No. 1 at 25½c in store; 2,400 bu do at 26½c in store; 2,000 bu do at 27c in store; and 2,500 bu (canal) do at 28½c afloat.

ALCOHOL—Receipts last week, 122 brls; shipments, 51 brls. Market quiet, and declined 1c—closing at 51c.

BUTTER—Receipts last week, 16,804 lbs. The light receipts of the past week, has caused the market to be firmer, and prices have advanced 1c on the better qualities. There is a fair shipping demand at 10½@11c for common to fair firkin, and for choice dairy a good city demand at 12@14c.

BROOM CORN—Nothing doing and entirely nominal at $100.00@140.00 ℔ ton.

LUMBER—As will be seen from the tables given above, the receipts of lumber during the past week, again loom up. This has rendered the market quite heavy, and manufacturers are rather dispirited at the prospects. The low prices which have ruled during the past month or six weeks, has caused several mills, who were only running to supply the transient trade to stop, there being no money in the operation of manufacturing lumber to sell at $5.50@6.50 per thousand. We also hear that some of our largest manufacturers are running only with a view to supply their own yards for the coming winter. If this policy is pursued to any extent, the probability is that our receipts will fall off considerably during the next two months, and the market will come up to fair prices. If, however, we continue to receive from ten to twelve millions weekly, there is only one thing to be looked for, and that is ruinously low prices.

The demand from the interior continues to improve slowly —country dealers exercising much caution in laying in their stocks. The farmers are moving their crops tardily; and if the extremely low prices which are predicted in the East take place, they will move even still slower. This will tend to cramp all kinds of business, but more particularly the lumber trade; for there is no other branch of trade so easily affected by the pockets of the farmers. The improved prices of wheat of the past week, however, has inspired more confidence; but there is not much prospect of the improvement being permanent.

Cargo sales during the past week have ranged low. Some extra choice cargoes have commanded fair prices; but outside and transient cargoes have been sold at a range of $6.00@7.50 per thousand. The sales reported during the week were as follows:

SALES OF CARGOES DURING THE WEEK.

A cargo of strips from Green Bay at $4, $5.75 and $15.00.

Cargo of stock boards from Muskegon, at 4.50 8.00 and 15.00.

Cargo of stock boards per R. H. Seymour, from Collingwood, at 9.00.

Cargo of mixed lumber per Monticello, from St. Clair River, at 6.50.

Cargo of mixed lumber from Grand River, at 6.00

Cargo of gang-sawed boards, per Little Belle, from Muskegon, at 4.00, 8.00 and 17.00.

Cargo of mixed lumber from Kalamazoo, at 4.00 and 7.00.

The business in the yards has been very quiet during the week, and for green lumber rates are a shade lower. Some dealers have been selling freely at $8.50 for common boards and fencing, and others as low as $8.00. Dry lumber, however, is firm at previous quotations.

SHINGLES, LATH.—The market has been rather bare of cargoes afloat, and there has been but little offering. A few lots of prime shaved shingles were sold at $1.87½ and $2.37½ for No. 1 and A.; and a few lots of outside manufacture at about 25c less. Rates in the yards are unaltered. Business quiet. Lath steady. Posts quiet.

Albany Lumber Market, Aug. 20.

[From the Albany Evening Statesman.]

On an average, the sales this month are less than they have been at a corresponding period for several years. The conclusion is that the last three months of the business season will make up for the present inactivity. Unless this turns out to be so, our expectations of a good fall trade will not be realized, notwithstanding a slight decline in some descriptions of lumber. We do not alter our opinion of a good fall demand. For some years past the bulk of the business here has been done after the middle of September. Formerly it was not so, on account of the lack of facilities in transporting lumber; now, that barges carrying large cargoes are so numerous, and passages so speedy by means of towing barges, buyers can more safely put off their purchases to the last moment than when sail craft had to be depended upon. Receipts are slightly in excess of those of last year to the same period, but the falling off that may now be looked for will favorably effect the market. Another favorable symptom is the gradual restoration of confidence and improvement of the money market.

The reasons for the increase in the receipts may be thus stated:

1st. The necessities of the people caused every effort to procure lumber as the only thing with which to obtain money.

2d. The facilities for manufacturing are far in advance of past days, by improved machinery, that,

3d. A large number of Eastern Adventurers have gone in to the business of making and shipping directly for their own localities.

4th. The Albany market has received a large amount that should have found market at Chicago and other Western localities.

5th. A general representation of Western manufacturers that there was "no lumber in the country."

All these causes have combined to thwart and mislead, and the consequence is a full stock and low prices.

Before this period last year Southern buyers of clear lumber had made their appearance. Their absence this season will account partly for the decline in our quotations. An improvement may again take place when winter supplies are sought for.

We notice a large shipment of 600,000 feet of lumber from Bangor, for Callao.

The receipts by the Erie and Champlain Canals during the 2d week in August in the same years named, were as follows:
